Our Lady of Peace Church & Shrine Mission Statement

Our Lady of Peace is a church and shrine dedicated to the greater glory of God and the salvation of souls.

It is a place of prayer & pilgrimage with:

- Perpetual adoration of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament • Devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary
- Frequent celebration of the Sacraments, particularly the Eucharist and Reconciliation
- Integrated formation of the person (spiritual, moral, intellectual and emotional)

Today We Celebrate

The Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

In the third chapter of his Apostolic Letter Dies Domini, St. John Paul II, speaks of the Eucharistic assembly as the heart of the Day of the Lord.

Therefore to observe Sunday properly, our first task is to take part in Holy Mass. This is a serious obligation, as the Catechism of the Catholic Church has recalled (§2181), yet more important, it is a deep need and longing of our souls.

The sacrifice made once and for all at Golgotha is renewed at every Eucharist and, the Church, uniting her sacrifice to that of the Lord, announces his death and proclaims his Resurrection as she awaits his coming. If this is true for Holy Mass celebrated on any day, it is especially true with regard to Sunday, since Sunday is particularly associated with the commemoration of Christ's Resurrection.

I am with you always, to the end of the age (Mt 28:20). This promise of Christ – explains the Holy Pontiff – constitutes the fertile secret of the Church's life and the wellspring of her hope. This ecclesial dimension, intrinsic to the Eucharist is realized in every Eucharistic celebration. But it is expressed most especially on the day when the whole community comes together to commemorate the Lord's Resurrection.

Sunday is the day when the whole community is called together; this is why it is also called dies Ecclesiae, the day of the Church.

On this day, the Christian assembly listens to the Word of God, proclaimed in abundance and with solemnity. Thus, in the first part of Mass there is a true dialogue of the Lord with his people. Then, through participation in the one banquet, communion is deepened among those who are united in the Spirit of Christ. The Sunday Eucharist is thus the privileged place in which the Church manifests herself as a sacrament of unity, "sign and instrument of communion with God and of unity among all men." (Lumen Gentium, 1)

During one Angelus in 1998, the Holy Father commenting this passage of his Apostolic Letter said: "There is an urgent need for the Lord's disciples to offer this witness of fraternal unity in a world that is frequently fragmented, torn and scarred by outbreaks of division, violence and war."

Therefore, the Sunday assembly is the privileged place of unity: it is the setting for the celebration of the sacramentum unitatis which profoundly marks the Church as a people gathered "by" and "in" the unity of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. For Christian families, the Sunday assembly is one of the most outstanding expressions of their identity and their "ministry" as "domestic churches" (Familiaris Consortio, 57), where parents share with their children at the one Table of the Word and of the Bread of Life.

We do well to recall in this regard that it is first of all, the parents who must teach their children to participate in Sunday Mass, although they may be assisted in this by catechists, explaining the important reasons behind the obligatory nature of the precept.

I refer to the advice that Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI once gave to a little girl whose parents wouldn't take her to Mass on Sunday: "with great love and respect for your parents, I would tell them: 'Please understand that this is not only important for me, it is not only catechists who say it, it is important for us all. And it will be the light of Sunday for all our family.'"

May our Heavenly Mother obtain for our Eucharistic assemblies the gift of effectively showing the presence of the risen Christ and of his Spirit. May her constant intercession ensure that we live as one heart and soul (cf. Acts 4:32), ever ready to respond to anyone who asks us to account for the hope that is in us (cf. 1 Pt 3:15).

May God bless you!

Fr. Gustavo Nieto, IVE

ASSUMPTION

from St. Theresa of Avila LCC

"Like Him, Mary's prayer was "Ecce, here I am!" Who? "The servant of the Lord", the lowliest of his creatures: she. His Mother! Her humility was so real for she was always forgetful, unaware, freed from self.

Mary's feasts are moments of celebration and beauty. Life is hard for many people. All the followers of Jesus at one time or another meet the Cross. We can at times find obedience to Christ's law and teaching very difficult. The feasts of Mary are a holiday, when we can lift up our hearts; they are a time of repose when we can contemplate her beauty; they are a time of consolation when we look to the reward that Mary enjoys and that we hope for ourselves. Hence we can celebrate the feast and feel restored".

Please come to our August 10th meeting in room 2116 from 1 pm til 5:00 pm to discuss this more.

Please contact Frank Cirimele at 408/723-8590 for further information".

EthicsPoint Hotline: 1-888-325-7863

Those responsible for the spiritual and material goods of the Church are entrusted with the stewardship of others' gifts, and are ultimately responsible to the Lord. As a faithful steward, the Roman Catholic Diocese of San Jose is committed to maintaining the highest standards of conduct and ethics. The mission of the Church requires no less.

To this end, the Diocese of San Jose has partnered with EthicsPoint to provide a confidential method to hear suggestions, concerns or reports of financial misconduct. The EthicsPoint Hotline (1-888-325-7863) allows parishioners, volunteers, employees, vendors and others to make confidential reports regarding the mismanagement of parish or school property, cash and all other assets. Reportable are also issues of apparent disregard of policies pertaining to the proper management of these assets. Suspected unethical behavior by employees, volunteers, staff, trustees, officers, directors, agents or contractors of the Diocese should also be made to EthicsPoint. All reports may be made anonymously.

It is the hope of the Diocese that EthicsPoint will assist in the protection of all who interact with the parishes, schools, chancery and other diocesan agencies. EthicsPoint accepts reports of financial misconduct through its website or its Hotline: 1-888-325-7863. A complete report will be made to diocesan leadership, so that leadership may review and provide feedback and resolution for the issues that are reported.

Please direct any questions that you may have about EthicsPoint or reporting concerns to Teresa Conville, Diocesan Compliance and Parish Financial Services Director at 408-983-0241 or tconville@dsj.org.

ANNOUNCEMENTS / ANUNCIOS

CATECHISTS AND ASSISTANTS NEEDED FOR THE CATECHETICAL YEAR 2014-2015

Dear All,

As you all know, our Catechism program is blessed with so many students, over 860 this year, and devoted Catechists, Assistants and Lobby monitors. I take this opportunity to express my gratitude to all of them, as I also encourage everyone to come back next year to teach and assist.

Yet, I would like to tell you that we are still in need of MANY MORE CATECHISTS, ASSISTANTS AND LOBBY MONITORS for the Catechetical year 2014 - 2015.

If you are willing to follow God's call to be a Catechist or an assistant, this is what you do:

- 1) Contact Sr. Angeles via e-mail at oloccd@servidoras.org for an interview.
- 2) Then Sr. Angeles will assist you with the Safe Environment procedure required by the Diocese of San Jose.

May God reward those who already volunteer to assist a class or to help monitor the lobby!

THANK YOU VERY MUCH!

Registration for Catechism Program 2014-2015
