Today We Celebrate The Exaltation of the Holy Cross

FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

The feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross celebrates two historical events: the discovery of the True Cross by Saint Helena, mother of Emperor Constantine, in 320AD under the temple of Venus in Jerusalem and, the dedication in 335AD of the basilica and shrine built on Calvary by Constantine, which marks the site of the Crucifixion. But most importantly, this feast reminds us as Pope Francis stated "the story of man and the story of God are interwoven on the Cross and essentially weave a love story".

I'd like to share with you an excerpt from Archbishop Fulton Sheen's book, "You", which speaks very powerfully of the mystery of the Cross in our lives. He writes: "Everyone in the world has a cross, but the cross is not the same for any two of us. The cross of the thief was not the cross of Mary. The difference was due to God's will towards each of them. The thief was to give his life; Mary to accept life. The thief was to hang on his cross; Mary to remain behind. The thief received a dismissal; Mary received a mission. The thief was to be received into Paradise; but Paradise was to be received into Mary."

Each of us, too, has a cross. Our Lord said: If anyone would like be my disciple, he must deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me (Mk 8:34). He did not say: "Take up My Cross." His cross is not the same as yours, and yours is not the same as mine. Every cross in the world is tailor made, custom built, patterned to fit its bearer and no one else.

That is why we say: "My cross is heavy." We assume that other people's crosses are lighter, forgetful that the only reason our cross is heavy is simply because it is our own. Our Lord did not make His cross; it was made for Him. So yours is made by the circumstances of your life, and by your routine duties. That is why it fits so tight.

Our Lord deals separately with each of our souls. The crown of gold you want may have underneath it the crown of thorns, but the heroes who choose the crown of thorns, often find that underneath it is the crown of gold. Even those that seem to be without a cross actually have one. No one would have suspected that when Mary resigned herself to God's will by accepting the honor of becoming the Mother of God she would ever have to bear a cross. It would seem, too, that one who was preserved free from original sin should be dispensed from the penalties of that sin, such as pain. And yet this honor brought to her seven crosses and ended by making her the Queen of Martyrs.

There are, therefore, as many kinds of crosses as there are persons: crosses of grief and sorrow, crosses of want, crosses of abuse, crosses of wounded love and crosses of defeat!

It is only when a log is thrown into the fire that it begins to sing. It was only when the thief was thrown into the fire of a cross that he found God. It is only in pain that some discover Love.

Because our crosses differ, soul will differ from soul in glory... God will take into account our crosses. He seemed to suggest that in the parable of Dives and Lazarus: My child, remember that you received what was good in your lifetime, while Lazarus likewise received what was bad; but now he is comforted here, whereas you are tormented (Lk 16:25). There will be a bright jewel of merit for those who suffer in this world. Because we live in a world where position is determined economically, we forget that in God's world the royalty are those who do His will."

On this occasion, we pray especially for our Sisters whose feast we celebrate today and particularly for those who make their perpetual vows. We make our own the petition of Fr. Buela, IVE, Founder: that they "imitate their Spouse in everything in order to configure themselves to Him, just as a wife should configure herself to her husband; but with even greater reason, for He is Jesus Christ." (Servidoras I, II Ed., 193)

God bless you all!

Fr. Gustavo Nieto, IVE

Frequently Asked Questions On Sacred Music

The Order of the Mass is the fundamental and primary song of the liturgy. It forms the part of the Mass that is of the greatest importance, and therefore it should be sung ideally before any of the other parts of the Mass are sung.

The Ordinary of the Mass, comprising the chants of the second degree, is also of its nature meant to be sung. The Ordinary of the Mass... are fixed within the Order of the Mass and, depending on the demands of the liturgy or season, form a part of the unchanging structure of the Mass.

While the Kyrie, Gloria, Credo, Sanctus, and Agnus Dei may be sung to a variety of musical settings, the Church's great sacred music tradition has handed down to us an inestimable treasure of chants for the Mass Ordinary.

Singing the Mass "Liturgical Music as Participation in Christ" by Bishop Thomas J. Olmsted ~ Adoremus Bulletin May 2012 Vol. XVIII, No. 3

Exaltation of the Holy Cross

"How splendid the cross of Christ! It brings life, not death; light, not darkness; Paradise, not its loss. It is the wood on which the Lord, like a great warrior, was wounded in hands and feet and side, but healed thereby our wounds. A tree has destroyed us, a tree now brought us life" (Theodore of Studios).

The History of the Feast

Early in the fourth century St. Helena, mother of the Roman Emperor Constantine, went to Jerusalem in search of the holy places of Christ's life. She razed the second-century Temple of Aphrodite, which tradition held was built over the Savior's tomb, and her son built the Basilica of the Holy Sepulcher over the tomb. During the excavation, workers found three crosses. Legend has it that the one on which Jesus died was identified when its touch healed a dying woman.

The cross immediately became an object of veneration. At a Good Friday celebration in Jerusalem toward the end of the fourth century, according to an eyewitness, the wood was taken out of its silver container and placed on a table together with the inscription Pilate ordered placed above Jesus' head: Then "all the people pass through one by one; all of them bow down, touching the cross and the inscription, first with their foreheads, then with their eyes; and, after kissing the cross, they move on."

To this day the Eastern Churches, Catholic and Orthodox alike, celebrate the Exaltation of the Holy Cross on the September anniversary of the basilica's dedication. The feast entered the Western calendar in the seventh century after Emperor Heraclius recovered the cross from the Persians, who had carried it off in 614, 15 years earlier. According to the story, the emperor intended to carry the cross back into Jerusalem himself, but was unable to move forward until he took off his imperial garb and became a barefoot pilgrim.

The Message

The cross is today the universal image of Christian belief. Countless generations of artists have turned it into a thing of beauty to be carried in procession or worn as jewelry. To the eyes of the first Christians, it had no beauty. It stood outside too many city walls, decorated only with decaying corpses, as a threat to anyone who defied Rome's authority—including Christians who refused sacrifice to Roman gods. Although believers spoke of the cross as the instrument of salvation, it seldom appeared in Christian art unless disguised as an anchor or the Chi-Rho until after Constantine's edict of toleration.
