Our Lady of Peace Church & Shrine Mission Statement

Our Lady of Peace is a church and shrine dedicated to the greater glory of God and the salvation of souls.

It is a place of prayer & pilgrimage with:

- Perpetual adoration of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament • Devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary
- Frequent celebration of the Sacraments, particularly the Eucharist and Reconciliation
- Integrated formation of the person (spiritual, moral, intellectual and emotional)

Today We Celebrate

The Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Since many of our parishioners are preparing to consecrate themselves to our Blessed Mother according to the method proposed by St. Louis de Montfort, I wish to share with you a meditation on certain passages from his writings that may help us to nourish our faith in the maternal mediation of the Mother of the Lord. And I wish to do so by following a letter that St. John Paul II addressed to the Montfort Religious Family in 2003.

He writes: "St Louis Marie proposes the loving contemplation of the mystery of the Incarnation with unusual effectiveness. Authentic Marian devotion is Christocentric.

The love of God through union with Jesus Christ is the purpose of every genuine devotion. Since Christ, as St. Louis Marie wrote, "is our only Master who has to teach us; our only Lord on whom we ought to depend; our only Head to whom we must be united; our only Model to whom we should conform ourselves; our only Physician who can heal us; our only Shepherd who can feed us; our only Way who can lead us; our only Truth whom we must believe; our only Life who can animate us; and our only All in all things who can satisfy us" (Treatise on True Devotion, n. 61).

Devotion to the Blessed Virgin is a privileged means "of finding Jesus Christ perfectly, of loving him tenderly, of serving him faithfully" (Ibid., n. 62). St Louis immediately expands this central desire to 'love tenderly' into a passionate prayer to Jesus, imploring him for the grace to participate in the indescribable communion of love that exists between him and his Mother.

"You never think of Mary without Mary interceding for you with God. You never praise or honor Mary without Mary's praising and honoring God with you. Mary is altogether relative to God; and indeed, I might well call her the relation to God. She only exists with reference to God. She is the echo of God that says nothing, repeats nothing, but God. If you say 'Mary,' she says 'God.'

"All our perfection", St Louis Marie Grignon de Montfort writes, "consists in being conformed, united and consecrated to Jesus Christ; and therefore, the most perfect of all devotions is, without any doubt, that which most perfectly conforms, unites and consecrates us to Jesus Christ. Now, Mary being the most conformed of all creatures to Jesus Christ, it follows that, of all devotions, that which most consecrates and conforms the soul to Our Lord is devotion to his holy Mother, and that the more a soul is consecrated to Mary, the more it is consecrated to Jesus" (Ibid., n. 120). In addressing Jesus, St. Louis Marie expresses the marvel of the union between the Son and the Mother: "She is so transformed into You by grace that she lives no more, she is as though she were not. It is You only, my Jesus, who live and reign in her.... Ah! If we knew the glory and the love which you receive in this admirable creature... She is so intimately united with You... She loves You more ardently and glorifies You more perfectly than all the other creatures put together" (Ibid., n. 63).

One of the loftiest expressions of St. Louis de Montfort's spirituality refers to the identification of the faithful with Mary in her love for Jesus and in her service to Jesus. Meditating on St. Ambrose's well-known text: "Let the soul of Mary be in each of us to magnify the Lord, and the spirit of Mary be in each of us to rejoice in God" (Expos. in Luc., 12, 26: PL 15, 1561), he writes: "A soul is happy indeed when... it is all possessed and overruled by the spirit of Mary, a spirit meek and strong, zealous and prudent, humble and courageous, pure and fruitful" (Treatise on True Devotion, n. 258)."

Finally, St. John Paul II concludes saying: "Happy, then, a thousand times happy, are the Christians who are now fastened faithfully and entirely to her, as to a firm anchor!" For this we pray.

I commend you all to the intercession and protection of our Blessed Mother, our Lady of Peace.

God bless you all!

Fr. Gustavo Nieto, IVE

Frequently Asked Questions on Sacred Music ~ Church Music Association of America

Q: Why should we regard Gregorian chant as the ideal?

A From her earliest days, the Roman Church has clothed her worship with Gregorian chant. Through the centuries she has safeguarded the chant as her own unique form of music, and through those same strains she continues to teach and pray, mourn and rejoice in her liturgy. For these reasons, Gregorian chant is the "supreme model for sacred music" (Pope Pius X) and the music proper to the Roman Church.

Throughout the 20th century, this fact was reiterated in official Church teaching on sacred music. Sacrosanctum Concilium affirms it, as does the General Instruction on the Roman Missal. As Pope John Paul II said, quoting Pope Pius X, "The more closely a composition for church approaches in its movement, inspiration and savor the Gregorian form, the more sacred and liturgical it becomes; and the more out of harmony it is with that supreme model, the less worthy it is of the temple." Pope Benedict XVI agrees: "An authentic updating of sacred music can take place only in the lineage of the great tradition of the past, of Gregorian chant and sacred polyphony." Chant is the one music that we inherit from the ancient Church fathers. It is not a "style" but the music of the Mass itself. It is sung in unison, which makes it a perfect expression of unity. It illuminates and gives expressiveness to the sacred texts, but it does not alter them. It musically expresses the heart of the Church and thus exists across and outside time. ~ to be continued next week...

PRIESTHOOD SUNDAY

Priesthood Sunday, the last Sunday of October, is a special day set aside to honor the priesthood in the United States. It is a day to reflect upon and affirm the role of the priesthood in the life of the Church as a central one.

Prayer For Priests

Gracious and loving God,
we thank you for the gift of our priests.
Through them, we experience
your presence in the sacraments.

Help our priests to be strong in their vocation.
Set their souls on fire with love for your people.

Grant them the wisdom, understanding, and strength they need to follow in the footsteps of Jesus.
Inspire them with the vision of your Kingdom.

Give them the words they need to spread the Gospel.
Allow them to experience joy in their ministry.

Help them to become instruments of your divine grace.

We ask this through Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns as our Eternal Priest.

Amen.

- Annual missalette--no need to switch it out four times a year
- Easy to read format, including entrance & communion antiphons in simple melodies
- Includes a repertoire of sacred songs and many of the popular hymns from our old Music Issue
- Will be much easier for our devoted to sing a long with the cantor and choir.
