Today We Celebrate The Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

This coming Friday, November 21st we will celebrate the Presentation of the Virgin Mary in the temple.

For a long time, Mary's parents, Sts. Joachim and Ann, were without children. God rewarded their prayers and granted them a daughter late in life. They may have made a vow before her birth to offer her up to God. When Mary was three years old, her parents took her to Jerusalem to present her to God in his Temple.

This event in Mary's childhood was recorded for the first time by St. Evodius, Bishop of Antioch; perhaps one of the seventy disciples of our Lord. He preceded St. Ignatius, St. Jerome, St. Gregory of Nissa, St. Gregory Nazianzen, and other Church authorities who lived when traditions were still very recent. They related the same event and held it as true. This event was already being commemorated in the East, in the 6th century. Pope Gregory XI introduced this feast at Avignon and Sixtus V in Rome in 1585 on November 21st.

The Responsorial Psalm that is read on this day says: How sweet to my taste is your promise! (Ps 119: 103a) making reference to our Lady's faith and hope, that reveals a fundamental way in which our Blessed Mother expressed her love for Jesus: that is by doing God's will. Yes, your decrees are my delight; they are my counselors, continues the Psalm, Your decrees are my inheritance forever; the joy of my heart they are.

So very briefly, I wish to share with you an excerpt from Pope Francis' preaching on our Lady's hope. He says: "Mary is the mother of hope, the icon that most fully expresses Christian hope. Her whole life is a series of episodes of hope, beginning with her 'yes' at the moment of the Annunciation. Mary did not know how she could become a mother, but she entrusted herself totally to the mystery that was about to be fulfilled, and she became the woman of expectation and hope. Then we see her in Bethlehem, where the One proclaimed to her as the Savior of Israel and as the Messiah is born into poverty. Later, while she was in Jerusalem to present him in the Temple amid the joy of the elderly Simeon and Anna, a prediction was made that a sword will pierce her heart and a prophecy foretells that He will be a sign of contradiction. She realizes that the mission and the very identity of this Son surpasses her own motherhood. We then come to the episode of Jesus who is lost in Jerusalem and is then called back: Son, why have you treated us so? (Lk 2:48), and to Jesus' reply that takes away her motherly anxiety and turns to the things of the Heavenly Father.

Yet in the face of all these difficulties and surprises in God's plan, the Virgin's hope is never shaken—The woman of hope. This tells us that hope is nourished by listening, contemplation and patience until the time of the Lord is ripe. Again at the wedding in Cana, Mary is the mother of hope, which makes her attentive and solicitous to human affairs. With the start of his public ministry, Jesus becomes the Teacher and the Messiah: Our Lady looks upon the mission of the Son with exultation but also with apprehension, because Jesus becomes ever more that sign of contradiction foretold by the elderly Simeon. At the foot of the Cross, she is at once the woman of sorrow and, of watchful expectation of a mystery far greater than sorrow which is about to be fulfilled. It seemed that everything had come to an end; every hope could be said to have been extinguished. She too, at that moment, remembering the promises of the Annunciation could have said: they did not come true, I was deceived. But she did not say this. And so she who was blessed because she believed, sees blossom from her faith a new future and awaits God's tomorrow with expectation." (Celebration of Vespers, 2013)

We owe so much to our Blessed Mother! She is that mother "who inspires us not with the vain hope of the miserable and transitory advantages of this life," says St. Alphonsus, "but with the holy hope of the immense and eternal good of the blessed life to come". May the feast of the Presentation of our Lady remind us that she, is the mother of hope, that she is always solicitous to sustain us in times of darkness, difficulty, discouragement, of seeming defeat or true human defeat. May our Blessed Mother help us to make of our lives a pleasing offering to our Lord, in an attitude that always looks forward to tomorrow.

May God bless you!

Fr. Gustavo Nieto, IVE

Frequently Asked Questions on Sacred Music ~ Church Music Association of America

Q: What are the sung Propers?

A: The Propers refer to the parts of the Mass that change from liturgy to liturgy. There are five sung Propers: Introit, Gradual, Alleluia (or Tract), Offertory, and Communion. These chants can be found in the Graduale Romanum and Gregorian Missal, both published by the Abbey Saint-Pierre de Solesmes, the center for chant restoration in the 19th and 20th centuries. The Introit chant is the normative ideal for what is commonly known as the processional hymn (sometimes called the gathering song). The Gradual, which follows the first reading, is now almost always replaced by the Responsorial Psalm from the Lectionary. The Alleluia, with its verse, immediately precedes the Gospel reading; it is replaced by the Tract in the penitential season of Lent. The Offertory is not just the act of presenting and preparing the gifts, but is a chant prescribed for the Mass of the day, even though the text is not given in the Roman Missal. The Communion chant is likewise prescribed for the Mass of the day. Ideally, all five Propers are sung in their Gregorian settings, but realistically this is not always possible. Latin and vernacular hymns may quite licitly replace the Introit, Offertory, and Communion chants, and simpler responsorial forms may replace the Gradual and Alleluia chants. Singing the full chant Propers requires careful planning and patient rehearsal over the course of many years. ~ to be continued next week...

The Family as First School of Human Virtues # 2

Continuing with our series about the family, we ask, how can a virtue be developed?

"A virtue may be developed in relation to two aspects:

- 1) the intensity with which it is practiced and
- 2) the rightness of the motivation underlying its practice.

In the family it is possible to stimulate the members to develop virtues out of love, knowing that all the members of the family have the duty to help the others to improve." (from Character Building, by David Isaacs, p. 6)

Join us for a pot-luck and meet the new members of the Catechumenate.

You're invited to a pot-luck on Sunday, November 30, 2014 following the 12:00 noon Mass to meet the new members of the Catechumenate.

As inquirers into the Catholic Faith experience an initial conversion and begin to enter into a relationship with God in Christ, they publicly declare their intention to enter the Church. The Church formally accepts the inquirers into her midst as catechumens. This is done at the Rite of Acceptance into the order of Catechumens.

The Rite of Acceptance into the Order of Catechumens is of the utmost importance because these individuals are assembling publicly for the first time to declare their intention to the Church and the Church in turn carrying out its apostolic mission, accepts them as persons who intend to become its members.

We also surround with special care and support those baptized inquirers as they prepare to be sealed with the gift of the Spirit in Confirmation and take their place at the Banquet Table of Christ's sacrifice. Bring a dish and meet in rooms 1101-1103 following the Mass, and welcome those who want to enter the Church.

Give the Gift of the Word of God!

Each year, Our Lady of Peace Church gives Bibles at the Rite of Acceptance into the Order of Catechumens to the new faithful who want to enter the Catholic Church. The new Catechumens will be baptized into Christ Jesus at the Holy Easter Vigil Mass. It is sometimes a long arduous journey for them, and the Word of God in Sacred Scripture helps to refresh their souls and keeps them on the right track. Would you like to sponsor a Catechumen and help him on his journey? A small donation of $20.00 will purchase one Bible! Your help is greatly appreciated, and we will ask the Catechumens to pray for their benefactors.

Make checks payable to "Our Lady of Peace Church", and write "RCIA Bible" in the Memo.

God Bless You for Your Generosity!

"Keep this book of the law on your lips. Recite it by day and by night, that you may observe carefully all that is written in it; then you will successfully attain your goal."
