Today We Celebrate The Baptism of the Lord

FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

The Christmas Season, which ends today, gave us opportunity to contemplate the Child Jesus in the poor grotto of Bethlehem, lovingly tended by Mary and Joseph. God entrusts every child to his parents: and thus we see how important is the family founded on marriage, the cradle of life and love! May the Holy Family be the model and school of simplicity and patience for all the families in our parish. I pray to our Lord that our families too may be welcoming places where these little ones may grow not only in good health but also in faith and love for God.

As we celebrate the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord today, I want to take this opportunity to reflect with you about one particular effect of Baptism – admission into the Church – following a magnificent homily by Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI. In the account of the Gospel, St. Luke says: when all the people were baptized, and when Jesus had also been baptized, and was praying (Lk 3:21), He speaks with his Father. And we may be certain that He did not only speak for himself but also of us and for us; He also spoke of me, of each one of us and for each one of us.

And then the Evangelist tells us that above the Lord in prayer, Heaven was opened. Jesus entered into contact with the Father, Heaven opened above Him. On the day of our Baptism, the Heavenly Father also repeats these words to each one of us. He says: “You are my child”. Baptism is adoption and admission into God’s family, into communion with the Most Holy Trinity, into communion with the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. For this very reason, Baptism should be administered in the Name of the Most Holy Trinity. These words are not merely a formula; they are reality. They mark the moment when we are reborn as children of God. From being the children of human parents, they also become the children of God in the Son of the living God.

In the New Testament St. Paul tells us: He saved us, not because of deeds done by us in righteousness, but in virtue of his own mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewal in the Holy Spirit (Ti 3:5). A washing of regeneration: Baptism is not only a word, it is not only something spiritual but also implies matter. All the realities of the earth are involved. “Baptism does not only concern the soul. Human spirituality invests the totality of the person, body and soul. God’s action in Jesus Christ is an action of universal efficacy. Christ took flesh and this continues in the sacraments in which matter is taken on and becomes part of the divine action.”

We can now ask precisely why water should be the sign of this totality. Water is the element of fertility. Without water there is no life. Thus, in all the great religions water is seen as the symbol of motherhood, of fruitfulness. For the Church Fathers, water became the symbol of the maternal womb of the Church.

Tertullian, a Church writer of the second and third centuries, said something surprising. He said: “Never is Christ without water”. By these words, Tertullian meant that Christ is never without the Church. In Baptism we are adopted by the Heavenly Father, but in this family that He establishes there is also a mother, Mother Church. Man cannot have God as Father, the ancient Christian writers were already saying, unless he has the Church as mother. So we could say that we are born out of the womb of the Church.

Hence, we do not become members of the Church as a brick is added to brick in a house. Baptism incorporates us into the Mystical Body of Christ as cells expand from central cells and so we become partakers of God’s divine nature. We are accepted as brothers and sisters into the family of the Church, a great family of Christians.

The Benedict XVI Institute was launched in part 'to recover a sense of our sacred music,' Archbishop Salvatore Cordileone said. by CARL BUNDERSON/CNA/EWTN NEWS 02/10/2014 Comments

A recently launched initiative in San Francisco will educate Church musicians about sacred music and train lay ministers for their roles, according to Archbishop Salvatore Cordileone. "To recover a sense of our sacred music" is among the top objectives of the Benedict XVI Institute for Sacred Music & Divine Worship, the archbishop of San Francisco told CNA Jan. 25.

"Beauty — as Pope Benedict has taught us — evangelizes, lifts us up to God, so we need to recover that sense of beauty in our liturgical music." Read more: <http://www.ncregister.com/daily-news/san-francisco-project-to-promote-beauty-in-liturgical-music#ixzz3O4vL44U>

"The Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us." John 1:14

The Family as First School of Human Virtues # 9

Continuing with our series about the family, let us take a brief look at the virtues by age level, keeping in mind the basic features of each age level and the nature of the virtues themselves.

From thirteen to fifteen years old:

- ⇒ Modesty
- ⇒ Moderation
- ⇒ Simplicity
- ⇒ Sociability
- ⇒ Friendship
- ⇒ Respect
- ⇒ Patriotism

"From the age of thirteen to fifteen, it seems desirable, in view of the young person's greater awareness of his own intimacy, to insist especially on virtues linked with temperance in the first place. The purpose behind this is to help him keep goodness in sight and not let his passions get out of control." (from Character Building, by David Isaacs, p. 19)

The Baptism of the Lord

"What happens in the moment that Jesus has himself baptized by John? With this act of humble love on the part of the Son of God the heavens open and the Holy Spirit is visibly manifest as a dove, while a voice from on high expresses the Father's pleasure, who points to his only begotten Son, the Beloved. This is an authentic manifestation of the Most Holy Trinity, which witnesses to Jesus' divinity, his being the promised Messiah, he whom God sent to free his people so that they might be saved (cf. Isaiah 40:2). ...the Lord God comes with power to destroy the works of sin and his arm exercises dominion to disarm the Evil One; but let us remember that this arm is the arm stretched out upon the cross and that Jesus' power is the power of him who suffers for us: this is the power of God, different from the power of the world; in this way God comes to destroy sin. Jesus truly acts as the Good Shepherd who feeds the flock and gathers it together that it not be scattered (cf. Isaiah 40:10-11), and he offers his life itself so that it have life. It is through Jesus' redemptive death that man is freed from the reign of sin and is reconciled with the Father; it is through his resurrection that man is saved from eternal death and is made victorious over the Evil One." (Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI)
