Our Lady of Peace Church & Shrine Mission Statement

Our Lady of Peace is a church and shrine dedicated to the greater glory of God and the salvation of souls.

It is a place of prayer & pilgrimage with: • Perpetual adoration of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament

- Devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary • Frequent celebration of the Sacraments, particularly the Eucharist and Reconciliation • Integrated formation of the person (spiritual, moral, intellectual and emotional)

Today We Celebrate the First Sunday of Lent

FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

For this Lent, our Holy Father Pope Francis is inviting all of us to open our hearts to God and to overcome a "globalization of indifference" that is threatening to spread a feeling of distress and powerlessness and causing us and our communities to withdraw into themselves, closing "the door through which God comes into the world and the world comes to Him."

Pope Francis defines Lent as "a time of renewal" and as a "time of grace." Indifference –he says- to our neighbor and to God "represents a real temptation for us Christians." "Usually, when we are healthy and comfortable, we forget about others (something God the Father never does): we are unconcerned with their problems, their sufferings and the injustices they endure. Our heart grows cold. As long as I am relatively healthy and comfortable," he says, "I do not think about those less well off."

Now, to further this renewal, the Holy Father suggests:

1. If one member suffers, all suffer together – The Church

"Christians are those who let God clothe them with goodness and mercy, with Christ, so as to become, like Christ, servants of God and others."

"Lent is a favorable time for letting Christ serve us so that we in turn may become more like Him. This happens whenever we hear the word of God and receive the sacraments, especially the Eucharist." (...)

"In this body there is no room for the indifference which so often seems to possess our hearts. For whoever is of Christ, belongs to one body, and in Him we cannot be indifferent to one another. If one part suffers, all the parts suffer with it; if one part is honored, all the parts share its joy."

2. Where is your brother? – Parishes and Communities

"In order to receive what God gives us and to make it bear abundant fruit, we need to press beyond the boundaries of the visible Church in two ways. In the first place, by uniting ourselves in prayer with the Church in heaven." (...) "In the second place, every Christian community is called to go out of itself and to be engaged in the life of the greater society of which it is a part, especially with the poor and those who are far away. The Church is missionary by her very nature; she is not self-enclosed but sent out to every nation and people."

Then, our Holy Father expressed his ardent desire that "our parishes and our communities, may become islands of mercy in the midst of the sea of indifference!"

3. Make your hearts firm! – Individual Christians

In order to make our hearts firm, (cf. Js 5:8), the Pope firstly underlines the importance of prayer and highlights the "24 Hours for the Lord" initiative of the Pontifical Council for the New Evangelization, to take place on March 13-14. Secondly, he appeals for acts of charity, and third, he says "the suffering of others is a call to conversion."

He concluded inviting everyone to engage in what is called the formation of the heart. "Anyone who wishes to be merciful must have a strong and steadfast heart, closed to the tempter but open to God."

Thus, during this Lent, in union with the Vicar of Christ, we ask our Lord: Make our hearts like yours. It is my prayerful hope that this Lent will prove spiritually fruitful for each one of us.

May God bless you all!
Fr. Gustavo Nieto, IVE

"The Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us." John 1:14

The Family as First School of Human Virtues

Let us now continue discussing the virtue of obedience, in which children need to be trained since their early years.

Obedience up to the age of thirteen

"Up to age of thirteen, approximately, lack of obedience does not give rise to serious problems: it is more a nuisance and source of exasperation to the parents. Often disobedience results in physical danger rather than moral danger. For example, a child who disobeys an instruction not to play in a particular place because it is dangerous, and then disobeys and breaks an arm. Yet this is the best time for teaching children to obey for high motives, the aim being to have them acquire the habit of obedience before they reach adolescence. So, it is not a matter of just getting children to obey: they have to obey well.

It is easy for parents to rest content with a more or less blind obedience on the grounds that this produces the desired results—peace and order. But we fail to realize that 'there is danger of mere involuntary collaboration whenever demands are made without appealing to the individual's conscience.' It is not enough for the child to do what we order him to do; and certainly it does not produce the virtue of obedience."

Our Lady's Juggler, Chapter 5

By Anatole France

"The monk was touched by the juggler's simplicity, and as he was not lacking in discernment, he at once recognized in Barnaby one of those men of whom it is said in the Scriptures: Peace on earth to men of good will. And for this reason he replied- "Friend Barnaby, come with me, and I will have you admitted into the monastery of which I am prior. He who guided St. Mary of Egypt in the desert set me upon your path to lead you into the way of salvation."

It was in this manner, then, that Barnaby became a monk. In the monastery into which he was received the religious vied with one another in the praise of the Blessed Virgin, and in her honor each employed all the knowledge and all the skill which God had given him.

The prior on his part wrote books dealing according to the rules of scholarship with the virtues of the Mother of God."
