Our Lady of Peace Church & Shrine Mission Statement

Our Lady of Peace is a church and shrine dedicated to the greater glory of God and the salvation of souls.

It is a place of prayer & pilgrimage with: • Perpetual adoration of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament

- Devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary • Frequent celebration of the Sacraments, particularly the Eucharist and Reconciliation • Integrated formation of the person (spiritual, moral, intellectual and emotional)

Today We Celebrate Easter

Christ is Risen!

FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners, [April 5 –

“Jesus, who was crucified, is risen! This event is the basis of our faith and our hope.” (Pope Francis)

From all of us here at Our Lady of Peace Parish, Priests, Sisters and our entire staff, we wish you and your families, a blessed and hope-filled Easter.

After Lent’s forty days of preparation for Easter, our Holy Mother Church in her wisdom ensures that we celebrate the resurrection longer than we do the season of penance. The Paschal Mystery, Christ’s passion, death and resurrection, is central to our faith. Jesus conquered sin and death and reopened the gates of heaven. Through His victory over death and our rebirth in baptism we share in eternal life.

While the Resurrection is the nucleus and is celebrated in our Faith every day, we particularly “exult and rejoice” during the Octave of Easter and Easter season, “The fifty days from Easter Sunday to Pentecost are celebrated as one feast day, sometimes called ‘the great Sunday’” (General Norms for the Liturgical Year and Calendar), which echoes St. Augustine’s homily: “The fifty days of Easter exclude fasts, since it is in anticipation of the banquet that awaits us on high.” (Sermon 252)

During these fifty days of rejoicing there are some elements in the liturgy that remind us of the extended feast.

For instance, you might see that the priests wear white or gold vestments all through the season. Also throughout the Easter season the Paschal or Easter candle, which is an image of the Risen Christ, remains at the side of the altar and is lit at every Mass. But also, the Easter season unfolds different aspects of the Resurrection of our Lord in the successive Sundays or weeks: Easter Sunday, Easter Octave, Divine Mercy Sunday, Solemnity of the Ascension, and preparation for Pentecost.

Particularly today, I’d like to emphasize the Easter Octave, which extends throughout the first eight days of the Easter season. During this time the Church considers every day another Easter, with the focus on the newly baptized, celebrating the liturgy of Easter Sunday until the Second Sunday of Easter (Divine Mercy Sunday). There are some differences in the Mass found only during the Octave which we should be aware of so as to take more advantage of the richness and sacredness of this time:

-Before the Gospel is proclaimed, the ancient Sequence Victimae Paschali is read or sung.

-The Alleluia verse throughout the week is “This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad, Alleluia.”

-Before the Holy, Holy, there is also a special preface of Easter.

-When Eucharistic Prayer I is used, there is a proper form for the “In communion with those...”:

Celebrating the most sacred night (day) of the Resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ in the flesh, and in communion with those whose memory we venerate, especially the glorious ever-Virgin Mary, Mother of our God and Lord, Jesus Christ...

-A proper “Therefore, Lord we pray” (Hanc igitur) is also used in the Eucharistic Prayer I: Therefore, Lord, we pray: graciously accept this oblation of our service, that of your whole family, which we make to you also for those to whom you have been pleased to give the new birth of water and the Holy Spirit, granting them forgiveness of all their sins; order our days in your peace, and command that we be delivered from eternal damnation and counted among the flock of those you have chosen. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

-Finally, at every dismissal of Mass: you might hear the Deacon or Priest say: Go forth, the Mass is ended, alleluia, alleluia; or Go in peace, alleluia, alleluia.

-May the fruitful participation of the Holy Mass help us “remember that there is no greater motive for joy than the Resurrection of the Lord because His triumph is our triumph, His victory is our victory.” (Fr. Buela, IVE Founder).

Happy Easter! And may God bless you all!

Fr. Gustavo Nieto, IVE

Paul's letter to the Galatians speaks directly to the heart of Christians and addresses the most important question we can ask: "What must we do to be saved?" This fascinating letter reveals the merciful love that God the Father has for us, his children. It speaks of the extraordinary gift of salvation that Jesus has won for us, and it explains how we can unite ourselves to Christ's redeeming sacrifice through faith and love. Galatians is a study that will reignite your love for God as you learn of the astonishing love God has for you.

"It's just incredible. I never really knew what it meant to be free, what it meant to be a son or daughter of God ... Now I do. My entire faith is enriched by it."

—Sharon

Traditional Easter Day Prayer

Christ is Risen: The world below lies desolate

Christ is Risen: The spirits of evil are fallen

Christ is Risen: The angels of God are rejoicing

Christ is Risen: The tombs of the dead are empty

Christ is Risen indeed from the dead,
the first of the sleepers,

Glory and power are his forever and ever
