- Devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary • Frequent celebration of the Sacraments, particularly the Eucharist and Reconciliation • Integrated formation of the person (spiritual, moral, intellectual and emotional)

Today We Celebrate the Fourth Sunday of Easter

FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

This coming May 1, the Church celebrates the memorial of St. Joseph the Worker. A feast that was established by Pope Pius XII in 1955 in order to Christianize the concept of labor and give to all workmen a model and a protector. By the daily labor in his shop, offered to God with patience and joy, St. Joseph provided for the necessities of his holy spouse and of the Incarnate Word, and in doing so he became an example to all workers.

The Book of Ecclesiastes says: There is nothing better for man than to eat and drink and provide himself with good things by his labors. Even this, I realized, is from the hand of God. (2:24)

Thus, while keeping all our working parishioners and all those who are still seeking for a job in our prayers, I want to propose for our reflection the following texts that speak precisely of why St. Joseph is a model and inspiration for all workers.

- St. Peter Julian Eymard writes: "At Nazareth Joseph's days were filled with work which necessarily took him away at times from his Infant God. During these hours Mary replaced him, but when evening brought him home again, he would pass the entire night in adoration, never tiring, only too happy for the chance to contemplate the hidden riches of Jesus' divinity. For he pierced the rough garments the Child wore, until his faith touched the Sacred Heart. In profound adoration he united himself to the special grace of each one of the events in the life of Jesus."

- St. Josemaria Escrivá: "Joseph was a craftsman from Galilee, just one man among many. What had life to offer to someone from a forgotten village like Nazareth? Nothing but work: work every day, with the same constant effort. And at the end of the day, a poor little house in which to rest and regain energy for the next day. But the name Joseph, in Hebrew, means 'God will add.' God adds unsuspected dimensions to the holy lives of those who do his will. He adds the one important dimension which gives meaning to everything, the divine dimension. To the humble and holy life of Joseph he added –if I may put it this way– the lives of the Virgin Mary and of Jesus, our Lord."

- Venerable Pope Pius XII, 11 March 1958: "O glorious Patriarch, Saint Joseph, humble and just artisan of Nazareth, thou hast given to all Christians, and particularly to us, an example of a perfect life through diligent labor and admirable union with Jesus and Mary."

- Saint John Paul II, Redemptoris Custos: "Work was the daily expression of love in the life of the Family of Nazareth. The Gospel specifies the kind of work Joseph did in order to support his family: he was a carpenter. This simple word sums up Joseph's entire life. For Jesus, these were hidden years, the years to which Luke refers after recounting the episode that occurred in the Temple: And he went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient to them (Lk 2:51). This "submission" or obedience of Jesus in the house of Nazareth should be understood as a sharing in the work of Joseph. Having learned the work of his presumed father, he was known as the carpenter's son. If the Family of Nazareth is an example and model for human families, in the order of salvation and holiness, so too, by analogy, is Jesus' work at the side of Joseph the carpenter... At the workbench where he plied his trade together with Jesus, Joseph brought human work closer to the mystery of the Redemption."

- Pope Francis I, Audience, 1 May 2013: "Jesus was born and lived in a family, in the Holy Family, learning from St. Joseph the carpenter's trade, in the workshop of Nazareth, sharing with him his commitment, hard work and satisfaction, as well as each day's difficulties. This calls to mind for us the dignity and importance of work... Work is part of the plan of God's love!"

May God bless you all!
Fr. Gustavo Nieto, IVE

Tra le Sollecitudini ~ Instruction on Sacred Music Pope Pius X ~ Motu Proprio promulgated on November 22, 1903

I General principles

2. Sacred music should consequently possess, in the highest degree, the qualities proper to the liturgy, and in particular sanctity and goodness of form, which will spontaneously produce the final quality of universality.

It must be holy, and must, therefore, exclude all profanity not only in itself, but in the manner in which it is presented by those who execute it.

Prayer of Generosity

*Lord, teach me to be generous
 Teach me to serve you as you deserve;
 to give and not to count the cost,
 to fight and not to heed the wounds,
 to toil and not to seek for rest,
 to labor and not to ask for reward,
 save that of knowing that I do your will.*

Both prayers are from St. Ignatius of Loyola

A Note from the Bishop

My Dear People,

We have received news today that one of our priests, Monsignor Hien Minh Nguyen, has been arrested on charges of bank fraud and tax evasion. The Diocese has been cooperating with an ongoing criminal investigation by the Internal Revenue Service into the conduct of Monsignor Hien since October of 2012.

Any facts in the matter are the part of the investigation, and only the IRS has the authority to make disclosures at a time of its choosing. We do not know when that might be. At the request of the IRS, we have had minimal direct communication with Monsignor Hien. He is on a personal leave of absence, which he requested.

I would be grateful if you would keep all involved in your prayers at this time.

*Sincerely,
 Bishop McGrath*
