Our Lady of Peace Church & Shrine Mission Statement

Our Lady of Peace is a church and shrine dedicated to the greater glory of God and the salvation of souls.

It is a place of prayer & pilgrimage with: • Perpetual adoration of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament

- Devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary
- Frequent celebration of the Sacraments, particularly the Eucharist and Reconciliation
- Integrated formation of the person (spiritual, moral, intellectual and emotional)

Today we celebrate the 26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

From Our Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

This coming September 29th we will celebrate the feast of Saints Michael, Gabriel, and Raphael, archangels. Sometimes we, Catholics, tend to think of them as playing their harps in highest heaven. Others may dismiss the notion of angels as a quaint superstition, while others may have adopted the New Age image of angels as supernatural wonderworkers or cosmic superheroes who sometimes dramatically step into our everyday lives.

Our Catholic tradition has a different view of angels and their role. Thus, I thought, it will be appropriate to remind ourselves of some catechetical points on angels.

"The existence of the spiritual, non-corporeal beings that Sacred Scripture usually calls 'angels' is a truth of faith. The witness of Scripture is as clear as the unanimity of Tradition." (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 328). That is to begin with.

Secondly, the Catechism also points out that Saint Augustine says: "Angel is the name of their office, not of their nature. . . With their whole beings the angels are servants and messengers of God. Because they always behold the face of God who is in heaven, they are the mighty ones who do his word, hearkening to the voice of his word" (c.f. Catechism of the Catholic Church, 329).

The witness of Scripture is clear as is the voice of Tradition. In Revelation 12:7 –which is one of the optional readings for the feast- we read, Then war broke out in heaven; Michael and his angels battled against the dragon. The dragon and its angels fought back, but they did not prevail, and there was no longer any place for them in heaven. The huge dragon, the ancient serpent, who is called the Devil and Satan, who deceived the whole world, was thrown down to earth, and its angels were thrown down with it.

We know the story of Saint Gabriel well and his message to Mary, which we read in Luke 1:26-38: Hail full of grace! The Lord is with you... Behold, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you shall name him Jesus. He will be great and will be called Son of the Most High... and of his kingdom there will be no end.

In the Old Testament's Book of Tobit, we read of the archangel Raphael, and how he guides Tobiah in making medicine that helps protect him and his wife Sarah from a demon and cures the blindness of his father, Tobit. Raphael returns to heaven after revealing his true identity as an angel of God.

The Catechism explains, "Christ is the center of the angelic world. They are his angels... He has made them messengers of his saving plan..." (331). Highlighting the role of angels in our salvation history, the Catechism says, "It is the angels who 'evangelize' by proclaiming the Good News of Christ's Incarnation and Resurrection" (333).

In our own call to take up the work of the New Evangelization and live and share our faith, we can be like Saint Gabriel and live as heralds of Jesus. When we recite the Hail Mary, we remember how Saint Gabriel announced the coming of our Lord, and like Mary, we can put aside our fears and say "yes" and welcome Jesus into our hearts and our lives.

In the beautiful Prayer to Saint Michael, we pray that the archangel "defend us in battle," and his example shows that we can defeat sin and evil by turning to God. The story of Saint Raphael reminds us that in God, we find hope and healing. These archangels can definitely play a role in our lives, too, leading us to the Incarnate Word.

On their Feast day, let us thank our Lord for the Archangels who have often entered into history as messengers in God's providential plan of salvation. Let us also remember our close connection with them in Christ, and frequently turn to them for their intercessory protection and assistance at every moment of our lives.

May God bless you!

Fr. Gustavo Nieto, IVE

Assembly Bill ABx2-15: The End of Life Option Act Consideration From A Catholic Perspective

by Reverend Joseph M. Benedict

Assembly Bill ABx2-15, The End of Life Option Act, was passed by California State Senate and has been submitted to Governor Brown for approval or veto. This legislation has received increasing support and greater prominence following the assisted suicide of Brittany Maynard. Brittany Maynard was a 29 year old Bay Area resident who was diagnosed with terminal brain cancer. She moved to Oregon which allows physician assisted and ended her life to “escape her suffering.”

Her decision to end her life and the pending legislation awaiting Governor Brown’s signature must be reconsidered from our Catholic tradition as well as within the context of human life and dignity. We believe that God is the source of all life. The creation stories of Genesis poignantly tell of God’s creative action; we read that women and men are created in God’s own image and likeness. Therefore, human dignity is not a consequence of cultural development or the result of legislative action. Human dignity flows from God’s creative act. We hold firmly to the belief that God is the author of all life. Directly acting against innocent human life is against God’s will. To unjustly take the life of another human being, or assist a person in taking their own life, is wrong.

Support for this bill has been presented as a compassionate response to the suffering of Britany Maynard and other terminally ill patients. Presenting ABx2-15 as a compassionate response, however, is misdirected. This bill undermines the value of the human person, does not fully respect end of life care that must be provided persons in their final days, and places vulnerable persons at greater risk.

The Church has endeavored throughout our history to alleviate human suffering and ease physical pain. Religious communities and lay women and men throughout our history have heroically dedicated themselves to the care of the sick and dying. Caring for the sick and suffering is an integral element of Christian discipleship, an expression of the very ministry of Christ. Such action extolls the value of the human person and incarnates God’s desire to heal. Compassionate accompaniment in illness is a Christian response to human suffering and pain.

This accompaniment certainly mandates adequate medical interventions to manage pain; it also assures human presence to ease fear and relieve anxiety. Too often adequate palliative care is absent in the final days of life. According to a 1992 palliative care manual of the Washington Medical Association, 90-99% of all pain of terminally ill patients can be controlled. Furthermore, palliative care has advanced greatly in the past twenty years.

Any person who is suffering from terminal illness remains a member of a human community. Any limitation because of illness and pain must not result in isolation or abandonment. They remain part of our families, parishes, and wider society. Our presence at the end of their life honors the relationships they have forged throughout their life.

Finally, assisted suicide places vulnerable persons and populations at greater risk. The experience in Oregon and Washington State indicate that this is a critical concern. Dr. Leon Kaas, M.D., a leading medical ethicist indicated in a recent article “I Will Give No Deadly Drug,” that many who feel they are a burden to their family and friends, as well as those who are anxious and depressed, are most likely to feel pressure to commit assisted suicide. Accompanying terminally ill patients in their final days can alleviate the perception that they are a burden; it likewise affords the dying the opportunity to express their concerns and honor the relationships that have enriched their lives.

This pending legislation is not a compassionate response to human pain and suffering. It undermines human dignity and limits the freedom of vulnerable persons to face their final days without subtle pressure to end their lives. True compassion demands ample care of the sick and dying, adequate medical intervention to relieve pain, and loving human accompaniment.
