Our Lady of Peace Church & Shrine Mission Statement

Our Lady of Peace is a church and shrine dedicated to the greater glory of God and the salvation of souls.

It is a place of prayer & pilgrimage with: • Perpetual adoration of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament

- Devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary
- Frequent celebration of the Sacraments, particularly the Eucharist and Reconciliation
- Integrated formation of the person (spiritual, moral, intellectual and emotional)

Today we celebrate the 28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

From Our Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

Few days separate us from the celebration of St. Teresa of Jesus, Virgin and Doctor of the Church (Oct. 15) whom Pope Francis has recently described as "primarily a teacher of prayer." (Letter to the Superior General of the Order of Discalced Carmelites, 03/28/15)

This time, I'd like to highlight four counsels—all of them intertwined—that can help us along our journey in the spiritual life and which I invite you to pause and read attentively.

1. Prayer. One of the key hallmarks of the spiritual heights of Saint Teresa of Avila is the importance of prayer. She defined prayer as "nothing more than spending a long time alone with the one I know loves me." She reminds us that our voices are not unknown to God, "However quietly we speak, He is so near that He will hear us. We need no wings to go in search of Him, but have only to find a place where we can be alone and look upon Him present within us." (The Way of Perfection, Ch. 28)

2. Courage. She knows that prayer might sometimes be arduous, so she tenderly yet firmly advises us: "We offer to Christ, inwardly and outwardly, what sacrifice we can." (The Interior Castle) "The Lord does not look so much at the magnitude of anything we do as at the love with which we do it. If we accomplish what we can, His Majesty will see to it that we become able to do more each day." (Seventh Mansions, Ch. 4)

Aware that the devil can present to the soul huge temptations she does not hesitate to affirm that we need courage to overcome all those difficulties. Knowing that "for the energy shown in bearing the trials of beginners allows our Savior to recognize His valiant friends who can drink of the chalice and bear the cross before He trusts them with His great treasures." (Life, 11) And she insists: "All that the beginner in prayer has to do... is to labor and be resolute and prepare himself with all possible diligence to bring his will into conformity with the will of God."

3. Love for Jesus. Saint Teresa gives us a hint to prayer growth! This woman Doctor of the Church said that she found many graces by meditating upon the Humanity of Jesus. By spending time with Jesus, the Son of God made man and entering into colloquy with Him is a sure path to growth in prayer. She wrote in her book "The Interior Castle" (Ch. 7, 8): "Some souls imagine they cannot meditate even on the Passion, still less on the most blessed Virgin or on the saints, the memory of whose lives greatly benefits and strengthens us. I cannot think what such persons are to meditate upon, for to withdraw the thoughts from all corporeal things like the angelic spirits ... is not possible for us while in this mortal flesh; we need to study, to meditate upon and to imitate those who, mortals like ourselves, performed such heroic deeds for God. How much less should we willfully endeavor to abstain from thinking of our only good and remedy, the most sacred Humanity of our Lord Jesus Christ? I cannot believe that any one really does this; they misunderstand their own minds and so harm both themselves and others. Of this at least I can assure them: they will never thus enter the last two mansions of the castle. If they lose their Guide, our good Jesus, they cannot find the way and it will be much if they have stayed safely in the former mansions. Our Lord Himself tells us that He is the Way; He also says that He is the Light; that no man cometh to the Father but by Him; and that He that seeth Me, seeth the Father also." Try it!

4. Perseverance. Even though she struggled for many years she teaches us this basic but indispensable spiritual truth: Perseverance in prayer! I invite you to prayerfully read her immortal words of wisdom and meditate upon them: "They should begin well," she affirms, "by making an earnest and most determined determination not to halt until they reach their goal, whatever may come, whatever it happen to them, whether they reach their goal or die on the road or have no heart to confront the trials which they meet, whether the very world dissolves before them." (Way to Perfection, Ch. 21)

"Perseverance amid exterior trials and aridities, perseverance when we are persecuted and afflicted by evil thoughts which we cannot cast out, perseverance in resuming recollection for there is no other remedy than to start again when it has been lost, perseverance in the struggle despite all obstacles, not to halt until the goal is reached. This disposition is always needed to advance into the interior of the castle."

May God bless you!

Fr. Gustavo Nieto, IVE

Venerable Pope Pius XII, Musicae Sacrae #14, December 25, 1955

"The choral chant began to be called "Gregorian" after St. Gregory, the man who revived it. It attained new beauty in almost all parts of Christian Europe after the 8th or 9th century because of its accompaniment by a new musical instrument called the "organ." Little by little, beginning in the 9th century, polyphonic singing was added to this choral chant. The study and use of polyphonic singing were developed more and more during the centuries that followed and were raised to a marvelous perfection under the guidance of magnificent composers during the 15th and 16th centuries."

Have questions about Junipero Serra & the California missions? Here in Santa Clara we were fortunate to have two of the leading experts & scholars of both California history & Saint Junipero Serra, who Pope Francis canonized September 23rd.

Junipero Serra: California, Indians, & the Transformation of a Missionary – 20% off!

Santa Clara Professors & co-authors Robert Senkewicz and his wife Rose Marie Beebe returned from the canonization in Washington DC and graciously gave Our Lady of Peace a presentation on Junipero Serra and the missions, including sharing slides from their experience at the canonization.

If you missed this wonderful presentation last week, copies of their book & audio of their talk are available in the gift shop, look for it in the front of the store and in our St. Junipero Serra display section.
