Today we celebrate the 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

From Our Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

This Sunday's Gospel presents the extraordinary story of Christ's healing of a blind man. Unlike many other miracles of Jesus, the person that is cured is named; his name is Bartimaeus.

The Gospel begins by saying that Jesus was leaving Jericho with his disciples and a sizable crowd (Mk 10:46). Certainly, Jericho was a city in Jesus' time, in fact, one of the oldest. But for any biblical person Jericho meant more than just a city East of Jerusalem. For Jericho was destroyed by the Israelites as they came to take possession of the Promised Land led by Joshua, so it symbolized sin or dysfunction. Then, for anyone in Jesus' time reading today's gospel, the fact that Jesus was leaving Jericho meant all kinds of associations.

Sitting by the gate of this city was Bartimeaus, Timaeus' son, a blind man who was by the wall of Jericho begging.

This man –I dare to say- symbolize all of us who –to varying degrees- live in the city of sin, who live in this dysfunctional place. I mean violence, self-absorption, hatred and all those things opposed to God. As a result we are blind spiritually and we do not see what we are meant to see. We do not see the ways of God. Furthermore, Bartimaeus is a beggar. And we –spiritually speaking- are all beggars. Sin is a problem we cannot solve on our own. We are blind and we are beggars. We need to beg to be saved.

So today I invite you to identify yourselves with Bartimeaus, and that is the point that Mark is also making in today's Gospel.

As we continue reading we come to this beautiful detail of Mark's Gospel: On hearing that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out and say, 'Jesus, son of David, have pity on me.' (Mk 10:47) Bartimeaus realizes he is a beggar, that he is blind and that he has to beg. One of the major spiritual problems people has is that they don't realize that. They think all is well or that all can be made well by our own efforts. That is what our secularized culture teaches us but not the Gospel.

Notice that many rebuked him and told him to be silent. (Mk 10:48) Symbolically speaking, Mark is telling us that once you acknowledge your blindness and you acknowledge before Christ your incapacity to save yourself: don't expect a lot of support! We live in a culture that is very "me-centric", we love people that are powerful, that are self-reliant, who likes someone who is a beggar? The world won't stand by you.

But still Bartimeaus kept calling out all the more: 'Son of David, have pity on me.' (Mk 10: 48) Despite the crowd, despite of the lack of support he kept calling out. That is a good advice for anyone of us. Keep asking, keep begging.

Think how often perseverance in prayer is recommended in the Gospel: Seek and you will find. Knock and it will open unto you. Ask and you will receive. Don't give up!

Then, Jesus stopped and said, 'Call him,' says the Gospel. Bartimeaus is being called out of his blindness, out of Jericho into a new way of being, which means friendship with Jesus Christ. He is the prototype of anyone of us who is member of the Church. We have been called by Jesus out of Jericho into this new friendship.

'Take courage; get up, he is calling you.' (Mk 10: 49) What a magnificent line of the Gospel! Bartimeaus throws off his old cloak –symbolizing his old life- he springs up and comes to Jesus. Then, the Gospel continues: Jesus said to him in reply, 'What do you want me to do for you?' The blind man replied to him, 'Master, I want to see.' (Mk 10: 51)

His problem is blindness, born of sin, born of self-absorption. What's the solution? Sight. How do you get it? Not by your own efforts, you cannot make yourself un-blind, but you can come to Jesus who can give you sight. So immediately he receives sight and the Gospel finishes with this beautiful words: [He] followed him on the way. (Mk 10:52) He began in blindness and in the city of sin but confessing his incapacity to regain sight he approaches our Lord and begging him to be cured his sight is restored and he is now able to walk the path of discipleship, going up to Jerusalem...to the Cross. Re-read this gospel: the whole spiritual life is there in a nutshell.

May God bless you all!

Fr. Gustavo Nieto, IVE

Pope Saint Pius X, Tra le Sollecitudini, November 22, 1903

"Gregorian Chant, which is, consequently the Chant proper to the Roman Church, the only chant she has inherited from the ancient fathers, which she has jealously guarded for centuries in her liturgical codices, which she directly proposes to the faithful as her own, which she prescribes exclusively for some parts of the liturgy, and which the most recent studies have so happily restored to their integrity and purity. On these grounds Gregorian Chant has always been regarded as the supreme model for sacred music, so that it is fully legitimate to lay down the following rule: the more closely a composition for church approaches in its movement, inspiration and savor the Gregorian form, the more sacred and liturgical it becomes; and the more out of harmony it is with that supreme model, the less worthy it is of the temple. The ancient traditional Gregorian Chant must, therefore, in a large measure be restored to the functions of public worship, and the fact must be accepted by all that an ecclesiastical function loses none of its solemnity when accompanied by this music alone. Special efforts are to be made to restore the use of the Gregorian Chant by the people, so that the faithful may again take a more active part in the ecclesiastical offices, as was the case in ancient times."
