Today we celebrate the Solemnity of All Saints

From Our Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

"At difficult moments in the Church's life, the pursuit of holiness becomes even more urgent. And holiness is not a question of age; it is a matter of living in the Holy Spirit." These words pronounced by St. John Paul II in 2002 provide the framework for the solemnity we celebrate today.

This feast in which we commemorate all saints and blessed along with the multitude of those who are in heaven enjoying the beatific vision that are only known to God reminds us that the call to holiness is not for few, but for everyone.

Jesus made his own the call to holiness already addressed by God to the people of the old covenant: You shall be holy; for I the Lord your God am holy (Lev 19:2). He repeated it continually by word and by the example of his life. Especially in the Sermon on the Mount – today's Gospel- the Incarnate Word left us a code of Christian holiness.

This time, I'd like to share with you an excerpt of one of our Holy Father's catechesis on the topic and which aims to respond to two important questions.

The first one: What does this universal vocation to being saints consist in?

He says: "We must bear clearly in mind that sanctity is not something we can procure for ourselves, that we can obtain by our own qualities and abilities. Sanctity is a gift, it is a gift granted to us by the Lord Jesus, when He takes us to Himself and clothes us in Himself, He makes us like Him. In his Letter to the Ephesians, the Apostle Paul states that Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her, that he might sanctify her (5:25-26). You see, sainthood truly is the most beautiful face of the Church, the most beautiful face: it is to rediscover oneself in communion with God, in the fullness of his life and of his love. Sanctity is understood, then, not as a prerogative of the few: sanctity is a gift offered to all, no one excluded, by which the distinctive character of every Christian is constituted."

The second question: How can we attain holiness?

"In order to be saints, there is no need to be bishops, priests or religious: no, we are all called to be saints! So, many times we are tempted to think that sainthood is reserved only to those who have the opportunity to break away from daily affairs in order to dedicate themselves exclusively to prayer. But it is not so! Some think that sanctity is to close your eyes and to look like a holy icon. No! This is not sanctity! Sanctity is something greater, deeper, which God gives us. Indeed, it is precisely in living with love and offering one's own Christian witness in everyday affairs that we are called to become saints. And each in the conditions and the state of life in which he or she finds him- or herself. [...] Are you consecrated? – Be a saint by living out your donation and your ministry with joy. Are you married? – Be a saint by loving and taking care of your husband or your wife, as Christ did for the Church. Are you an unmarried baptized person? – Be a saint by carrying out your work with honesty and competence and by offering time in the service of your brothers and sisters. "But, father, I work in a factory; I work as an accountant, only with numbers; you can't be a saint there...". "Yes, yes you can! There, where you work, you can become a saint. God gives you the grace to become holy. God communicates himself to you". Always, in every place, one can become a saint, that is, one can open oneself up to this grace, which works inside us and leads us to holiness. Are you a parent or a grandparent? – Be a saint by passionately teaching your children or grandchildren to know and to follow Jesus. And it takes so much patience to do this: to be a good parent, a good grandfather, a good mother, a good grandmother; it takes so much patience and with this patience comes holiness: by exercising patience. Are you a catechist, an educator or a volunteer? Be a saint by becoming a visible sign of God's love and of his presence alongside us. This is it: every state of life leads to holiness, always! In your home, on the street, at work, at church, in that moment and in your state of life, the path to sainthood has been opened. Don't be discouraged to pursue this path. It is God alone who gives us the grace. The Lord asks only this: that we be in communion with Him and at the service of our brothers and sisters." (11/19/2014)

Happy All Saints Day!

Note to Parishioners re: Stadium Events

To help you plan your schedule for attending Mass at Our Lady of Peace, please refer to the stadium's events calendar. You may also consider downloading The Levi's® Stadium mobile app from the Apple App Store and the Google Play Store to confirm real-time traffic issues heading to or leaving from the stadium. If you have been wondering about activities and traffic leading up to the super bowl next February 7, you don't need to. From what we have been told, most of the events will be in San Francisco or San Jose. On January 31, however, the city of Santa Clara is planning a super celebration at Mission Colleges with pop music performers on stage (e.g. Heart), food, and drink. This is a Sunday and it will impact traffic. More details will be coming. Instead of worrying about the traffic, however, let's consider how we might spread the message that we are across the street! For example, if we can get a speaker tied to professional football, we're hoping to schedule a February 3 Theology on Tap the week before superbowl that we can promote throughout the bay area. Any other suggestions? Contact Karen Ruiz at 408-988-4585 x2125. Two areas where the City of Santa Clara is welcoming participation by our parishioners: 1) Volunteers needed for event control that Sunday and 2) we may be able to sponsor an activity (e.g. like selling some beverage or food)—the purpose being to remind attendees that we are right across the street. More information will be available in the coming weeks.

5:00 pm: Love and Relationships
(by Jackie Francois)

"When all we see are people on TV acting like sex-crazed animals, with no capacity for the virtue of self-control, how can we think that it's possible to live otherwise? We need more examples in our culture of people who are LIVING chastity in all relationships."

6:30 pm: Porn: 7 Myths Exposed
(by Matt Fradd)

"It's just harmless entertainment." "It's not like I'm supporting the industry." These and many other myths prevent many of us from seeing pornography for what it truly is: a diabolical counterfeit of love. In this entertaining presentation, Matt exposes what he believes are 7 of the most common myths about porn. He backs up his arguments with startling statistics, real life stories, and the rock solid wisdom of the Church's teaching on human sexuality. "When all we see are people on TV acting like sex-crazed animals, with no capacity for the virtue of self-control, how can we think that it's possible to live otherwise? We need more examples in our culture of people who are LIVING chastity in all relationships."

PRESENTED BY THE DIOCESE OF SAN JOSE OFFICES OF VOCATIONS, EVANGELIZATION, AND YOUTH & YOUNG ADULT MINISTRIES

Prayer for Children

O God the Father of mankind, who hast given unto me these my children, and committed them to my charge to bring them up for Thee, and to prepare them for eternal life: help me with Thy heavenly grace, that I may be able to fulfil this most sacred duty and stewardship. Teach me both what to give and what to withhold; when to reprove and when to forbear; make me to be gentle, yet firm; considerate and watchful; and deliver me equally from the weakness of indulgence, and the excess of severity; and grant that, both by word and example, I may be careful to lead them in the ways of wisdom and true piety, so that at last I may, with them, be admitted to the unspeakable joys of our true home in heaven, in the company of the blessed Angels and Saints. Amen.
