SACRED HEART OF JESUS

"Today, in adoring the Sacred Heart, let us pray fervently for peace. First of all for peace in our hearts, but also for peace in our families, our nation and around the world. Heart of Jesus, our peace and reconciliation, have mercy on us!"

- St. Pope John Paul II

OUR LADY OF PEACE CATHOLIC CHURCH & SHRINE MISSION STATEMENT

Our Lady of Peace is a church and shrine dedicated to the greater glory of God and the salvation of souls.

It is a place of prayer & pilgrimage with:

- Perpetual adoration of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament
- Devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary
- Frequent celebration of the Sacraments, particularly the Eucharist and Reconciliation
- Integrated formation of the person (spiritual, moral, intellectual and emotional)

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

This past Friday June 3rd we celebrated the Solemnity of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus which is one of the most popular devotions within the Church. I'd like to remind you also that in June 1899 Pope Leo XIII consecrated the Human Race to the Divine Heart of Jesus. With that consecration he wished to obtain "extraordinary benefits first for Christianity, but also for the whole human race," and such event cannot be forgotten. (Annum sacrum, 71). Because just simply put: "the Heart of Christ is the heart of the Church" and the world needs to understand that "Christianity is the religion of love." (Cf. St. John Paul II, Homily, 11 June 1999)

This time, however, given the fact that we are in the midst of the Extraordinary Jubilee Year of Mercy, the Solemnity takes on a very special connotation.

Saint John Paul II wrote in his Encyclical Dives in misericordia: "The Church seems in a particular way to profess the mercy of God and to venerate it when she directs herself to the Heart of Christ. In fact, it is precisely this drawing close to Christ in the mystery of his Heart which enables us to dwell on this point—a point in a sense central and also most accessible on the human level—of the revelation of the merciful love of the Father, a revelation which constituted the central content of the messianic mission of the Son of Man." (13)

The popes, particularly St. John Paul II have often urged all of us to persevere in the practice of this devotion, which—as he himself has said it—"contains a message which in our day has an extraordinary timeliness," because "an unending spring of life, giving hope to every person, has streamed precisely from the Heart of God's Son, who died on the Cross. From the Heart of Christ crucified is born the new humanity redeemed from sin." Moreover, the Holy Pope has untiringly emphasized that we need "Christ's Heart to know God and to know ourselves; we need it to build the civilization of love." (Cf. 8 June 1994) "From the Heart of Christ," continues JP II, "man's heart learns to know the genuine and unique meaning of his life and of his destiny, to understand the value of an authentically Christian life, to keep himself from certain perversions of the human heart, and to unite the filial love of God with love of neighbor." (Message to the Society of Jesus, 5 October 1986).

The saints of all times also have recommended us to adore and contemplate the Heart of Christ especially in the Eucharist in order to become men and women of interior life. Why is this? St. John Paul II explains it:

First, our "Savior's Heart invites us to return to the Father's love, which is the source of every authentic love: In this is love, not that we loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the expiation for our sins. (1 Jn 4:10) Jesus ceaselessly receives from the Father, rich in mercy and compassion, the love which He lavishes upon human beings (cf. Eph 2:4; Jas 5:11). His Heart particularly reveals the generosity of God towards us, sinners." Thus, a true devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus implies living a life of grace, often recurring to the sacraments, especially the Sacrament of Confession where we receive the healing caress of God's Mercy.

Second, the "contemplation of the Heart of Jesus in the Eucharist will spur in us the seeking in that Heart the inexhaustible mystery of the priesthood of Christ and of the Church. It will enable us to taste, in communion with our brothers and sisters, the spiritual sweetness of charity at its very source." It will make us more aware of having to live our apostolic dimension implied in our Baptism by spreading love and participating in the mission of evangelization. Therefore, true devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus also implies sharing with others this love of Christ, especially through the works of mercy.

I leave you with the wise words of our dear John Paul II, and I'm especially thinking of all the families that attend our Parish; he's said: "Always keep your eyes on the Sacred Heart of Jesus, King and Center of all hearts. From him you will learn the great lesson of love, goodness, of sacrifice, of piety, so necessary for every Christian family. From him you will obtain strength, serenity, authentic and profound happiness for your married life! You will draw down his blessing, if the image of his Heart—besides being impressed on your mind—is always exposed and honored on the wall of your home!"

May God bless you all!

Fr. Gustavo Nieto, IVE

In this intriguing look at one of the most talked-about books in Scripture, Jeff Cavins will explore Revelation to demonstrate how the Kingdom established by Christ in His Church is intimately connected with the Kingdom of Heaven, especially through the celebration of the Mass. You will also learn what all the mysterious figures and images of Revelation represent, as well as what will happen during the Second Coming of Christ, what has already happened, and what is happening now in Salvation History.

"Once you start learning he makes you hunger for more. Jeff pulls everything you need to know out of the Bible and it all starts to make sense like it never did before."
