OUR LADY OF PEACE CATHOLIC CHURCH & SHRINE MISSION STATEMENT

Our Lady of Peace is a church and shrine dedicated to the greater glory of God and the salvation of souls.

It is a place of prayer & pilgrimage with:

- Perpetual adoration of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament
- Devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary
- Frequent celebration of the Sacraments, particularly the Eucharist and Reconciliation
- Integrated formation of the person (spiritual, moral, intellectual and emotional)

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

The sixth chapter of Ecclesia de Eucharistia, "At the School of Mary, 'Woman of the Eucharist,'" is a timely and original reflection on the surprising analogy between the Mother of God, who by bearing the body of Jesus in her womb became the first "tabernacle", and the Church who in her heart preserves and offers to the world Christ's body and blood. The Eucharist then is given to us so that our life may become a continuous Magnificat in honor of the Most Holy Trinity.

St. John Paul II wrote, "If we wish to rediscover in all its richness the profound relationship between the Church and the Eucharist, we cannot neglect Mary, Mother and model of the Church. [...] Mary can guide us towards this most holy sacrament, because she herself has a profound relationship with it." (53)

The Pope argues that although the Gospels remain silent regarding her presence during the institution of the Holy Eucharist on Holy Thursday, "certainly Mary must have been present at the Eucharistic celebrations of the first generation of Christians, who were devoted to the breaking of bread (Acts 2:42)." But in addition to that, he says, "Mary is a woman of the Eucharist in her whole life." (53)

And so, "if the Eucharist is a mystery of faith," Ecclesia de Eucharistia declares, "which calls for a sheer abandonment to the word of God, then there can be no one like Mary to act as our support and guide in acquiring this disposition. [...] With the same maternal concern which she showed at the wedding feast of Cana, Mary seems to say to us: 'Do not waver; trust in the words of my Son. If he was able to change water into wine, he can also turn bread and wine into his body and blood, and through this mystery bestow on believers the living memorial of his Passover, thus becoming the bread of life.'" (Cf. 54)

The Holy Father also highlights Mary's presence in our Eucharistic celebrations: "Mary is present, with the Church and as the Mother of the Church, at each of our celebrations of the Eucharist. If the Church and the Eucharist are inseparably united, the same ought to be said of Mary and the Eucharist." (57)

"In the Eucharist the Church is completely united to Christ and his sacrifice, and makes her own the spirit of Mary. This truth can be understood more deeply by re-reading the Magnificat in a Eucharistic key. The Eucharist, like the Canticle of Mary, is first and foremost praise and thanksgiving. When Mary exclaims: My soul magnifies the Lord and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior, she already bears Jesus in her womb. She praises God 'through' Jesus, but she also praises him 'in' Jesus and 'with' Jesus. This is itself the true 'Eucharistic attitude.'" (58)

Full of love and of contagious devotion for our Lady, St. John Paul II wrote: "The Magnificat expresses Mary's spirituality, and there is nothing greater than this spirituality for helping us to experience the mystery of the Eucharist. The Eucharist has been given to us so that our life, like that of Mary, may become completely a Magnificat!" (58)

Notice the deep emotion with which these words of St. John Paul II are imbued: "Ave verum corpus natum de Maria Virgine, vere passum, immolatum, in cruce pro homine! Here is the Church's treasure, the heart of the world, the pledge of the fulfillment for which each man and woman, even unconsciously, yearns. A great and transcendent mystery, indeed, and one that taxes our mind's ability to pass beyond appearances. Here our senses fail us: visus, tactus, gustus in te fallitur, in the words of the hymn Adoro Te Devote; yet faith alone, rooted in the word of Christ handed down to us by the Apostles, is sufficient for us. Allow me, like Peter at the end of the Eucharistic discourse in John's Gospel, to say once more to Christ, in the name of the whole Church and in the name of each of you: Lord to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life (Jn 6:68)."

St. Peter of Alcantara used to say: "Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament has His hands full of graces, and He is ready to bestow them on anyone who asks for them." In turn, St. John Bosco would say: "Do you want many graces? Go and visit the Blessed Sacrament often. Do you want few graces? Visit the Blessed Sacrament rarely. Do you want none at all? Then never pay a visit to the Blessed Sacrament."

I pray that we and many more souls may always contemplate our Lord enveloped in our Blessed Mother's arms.

Nine Month Novena in Preparation for the Centennial of the Fatima Apparitions

Dear Fathers, Brothers, and Friends,

Between the 13th of May and the 13th of October in 1917 the six apparitions at Fatima—with its message of repentance, comfort, warning, and singular protection—took place. In May of next year, we will celebrate the 100th anniversary of this memorable event which has left a deep mark not only on the Church of the twentieth century, but also on Marian devotion, on the Christian conscience, and even on the actions of some Popes (pilgrimages to her shrine, the revelation of the secrets announced by the Blessed Virgin Mary to Venerable Sr. Lucia and to Blessed Jacinta and Blessed Francisco, as well as the consecration of the world to Mary's Immaculate Heart). As is known, the prayers of our Mother, and those intentions that She asked the Church to pray for—the world and some countries in particular (Russia)—were decisive in the events of the end of the last century, in a special way in the fall of Soviet empire, one of the most anti-Christian empires in whole history.

Ours is a time full of lights and shadows, of hopes and of the predication of future storms, of political uncertainties and doctrinal confusion, some of them unlike ever before. Today, as in so many crucial moments, we need the particular intervention of this protective Mother and a new triumph of her Immaculate Heart. Once again the Church goes through history "amid the persecutions of the world and the consolations of God" (St. Augustine), and many hearts are troubled by anxiety and uncertainty. The proximity of the next celebration is a special opportunity to call upon our Mother with all of our strength.

A unique way to prepare for the centennial of her protecting providential help is with a novena, though not of days, but of months. Beginning in August, which starts tomorrow, we have exactly nine months before next May. That is why, from the General House of the Institute, we want to guide and make our own this initiative that was presented to us by Father Miguel Angel Fuentes.

It is the following: without overloading the regular activities with which we already express our Marian devotion, but rather by ordering and emphasizing them, we can make this work of preparation an opportunity to express a distinctive Marian devotion that should characterize us on account of our fourth vow of Marian slavery.

Our proposal consists in joining together these nine months by devoting each one of them to exalt one of the main privileges of Mary and performing some activities, of which some are listed below, as well as all those you would like to add (recitation of the Rosary in community or in family, a continuous recitation of the Rosary on some occasions, pilgrimages to her shrines, etc.).

The privileges that we should keep in mind in each of the months are the following (all of them can be found in the work of Antonio Royo Marín, The Virgin Mary, or in any of the good treatises on the Blessed Virgin Mary, all of which are easily found online):

- 1) August: Mary's Predestination
- 2) September: The Immaculate Conception
- 3) October: Mary's Perpetual Virginity
- 4) November: Divine Motherhood
- 5) December: Spiritual Motherhood
- 6) January: Marian Co-redemption
- 7) February: Mary Mediatrix of All Graces
- 8) March: The Assumption of Mary into Heaven 9) April: Mary Queen of the Universe

In each of these months several activities could be performed.

1. To celebrate all Saturday Masses in honor of the Blessed Virgin Mary as the liturgy allows.
2. To preach on the Blessed Virgin Mary at least two Saturdays each month, if possible on the privilege to which the month is dedicated.

We thank Fr. Miguel Angel Fuentes for having taken the initiative to make this nine-month novena and we wish you all a very fruitful preparation to celebrate the 100th anniversary of the apparitions of Our Lady at Cova da Iria in 2017.

New Assignments with the IVE Sisters

With the promise of prayers and an abundance of gratitude we would like to announce that Mother Regina Pacis has received a new mission.

Mother Pacis will soon enter one of our Monasteries as a Contemplative Sister for the SSVM, where we know she will be praying for our community of Our Lady of Peace. Thank you Mother Pacis for your service to God and to this community these past 3 years.

On September 15th we will warmly welcome Mother Maria de la Caridad as new superior of the sisters at Our Lady of Peace. Mother Caridad is from Argentina, and lived in the United States for 12 years in various missions including as superior in the SSVM Juniorate and Novitiate. She is now returning to the United States after serving as Provincial Superior in Northern Europe for the last 6 years.

We congratulate Mother Pacis and Mother Caridad on their new missions and assure them of our prayers!

CELEBRATION OF THE NATIVITY OF THE BLESSED MOTHER

You and your loved ones are cordially invited to join us for the Annual Placing of Prayer Petitions into the Heart of Mary on:

September 11th
after the 2:00pm Sunday Mass

To participate, please fill out the form on the reverse page, write down your prayer petitions, thanksgiving and/or names of loved ones. You may also attach an 8.5x12 page full of petitions but please do keep your document one sided, unstapled, unfolded, and untaped as they are scanned. You are most welcome to return it to the rectory (via collection basket, mail, or in person) with your sacrificial gift (see form) in the enclosed blue envelope. The deadline is September 1, 2016. Your tax-deductable donations will be utilized by the parish to maintain the Shrine.

The Total Consecration to Jesus through Mary Program at Our Lady of Peace Church and Shrine is based on St. Louis de Montfort's book True Devotion to Mary. This program consists of 33 days of prayer and exercises which help purify souls to prepare one for Total Consecration to Jesus through Mary.

In this program, there are two different periods assigned to these exercises:

- The first period includes 12 days of exercises employed in casting off the spirit of the world which is contrary to Jesus Christ
- The second period consists of 3 weeks: the first devoted to the Knowledge of Ourselves, the second devoted to the Knowledge of the Blessed Virgin Mary and the third devoted to that of Jesus Christ.

All Consecration Participants will consecrate together on November 19, the Vigil of the Feast of Christ the King at the 5pm mass at Our Lady of Peace Church & Shrine. Prayers can be recited at one's home if one is unable to go to the church.
