Second Sunday of Advent

December 9, 2018

Up, Jerusalem! stand upon the heights;
look to the east and see your children gathered from the east and the west at the word of the Holy One, rejoicing that they are remembered by God.

Baruch 5:5

Our Lady of Peace Catholic Church & Shrine Mission Statement

Our Lady of Peace is a church and shrine dedicated to the greater glory of God and the salvation of souls. It is a place of prayer & pilgrimage with: • Perpetual adoration of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament • Devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary • Frequent celebration of the Sacraments, particularly the Eucharist and Reconciliation • Integrated formation of the person (spiritual, moral, intellectual and emotional)

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Friends,

Some of you may have heard, especially if you are a parent of a confirmation student, but this Advent – like the past one – I have challenged the students in confirmation to go to Mass everyday throughout Advent. There is no better way to prepare ourselves for Christ's birth, plain and simple. It has been coined "the Advent Challenge."

On this second Sunday of Advent, we are challenged by way of St. John the Baptist. He was a young man who retired from the world, and when men came to seek him, spoke sternly to them. He challenged them.

His preaching and his work is the fulfillment of the prophecy made five centuries earlier by Isaiah: A voice of one crying out in the desert: "Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths. Every valley shall be filled and every mountain and hill shall be made low. The winding roads shall be made straight, and the rough ways made smooth, and all flesh shall see the salvation of God" (Lk 3,4).

On one hand, this news was the greatest and most comforting that a Jew could hope for—the Messiah was at the gates. The Jews were the people of hope, the people of long-waiting. For this reason, to announce His imminent arrival was the cause of an unprecedented joy. This was his message: "One mightier than I is coming after me. I am not worthy to stoop and loosen the thongs of his sandals. I have baptized you with water; He will baptize you with the holy Spirit." (Mk 1,7-8)

The message, however, was at the same time an exhortation and a call to penance. The Lord is pleased to visit His people, to enter into the hearts of His faithful, and to bring about conversion. The Lord is coming, therefore, there is an urgent need for a total return to God, an authentic conversion of heart, a change of mentality.

Every Advent we receive the call of conversion, which is a call to live a life of sanctity. Every Advent we proclaim that sanctity is not an ideology made up in my mind or a fantasy that is imagined in a book, but is the "natural" or supernatural consequence of being a follower of Christ. Advent is a time in which the Church formally calls out to us, and challenges us to be saints. Who is a saint? Chesterton rightly says,

"The saint is a medicine because he is an antidote. Because of this the saint is often a martyr; he is mistaken for a poison because he is an antidote. He will generally be found restoring the world to sanity by exaggerating whatever the world neglects...[The saint] is not what the people want, but rather what the people need. Only in this way can we understand the words of Christ, "you are the salt of the earth." Salt seasons and preserves meat, not because it is like meat; but because it is very unlike it. Christ did not tell his apostles that they were only excellent people, or the only excellent people, but that they were the exceptional people... the incompatible people; and the text about the salt of the earth is really sharp...as the taste of salt. It is because they were the exceptional people, that they must not lose their exceptional quality. . . . Therefore it is the paradox of history that each generation is converted by the saint who contradicts it most." (G.K. Chesterton, Collected Works: St. Thomas Aquinas, 424)

God called John the Baptist while he was still "in his mother's womb" to be the "voice that cries in the desert" and thus to prepare the way for his Son. Similarly, God has "laid his hand" on each one of us. To each of us goes a special call; to each is given a particular task. In every call, which we can experience in a variety of ways, the same voice of God is present which spoke through John: "Prepare the way of the Lord" (Mt 3:3).

Every person should ask what he in his vocation, in his position, can do to help bring about the Lord's entrance into the world. Whenever we are open to God's call, we become, like John, God's precursor among men.

"Prepare the way of the Lord . . . that my salvation may reach to the ends of the earth" (cf. Is 49:6)

Mary, Our Lady of Peace, pray for us,
Fr. Brian

"I did not think a single book could be written about Mary that would excite & unite Catholic & Protestant readers – scholars, clergy, & laity alike. What Pitre does with the Bible & Marian typology is clear & compelling. A joy to read, this is the best biblical study of Mary I have ever read. A true masterpiece."
