Our Lady of Peace Catholic Church & Shrine Mission Statement

Our Lady of Peace is a church and shrine dedicated to the greater glory of God and the salvation of souls.

It is a place of prayer & pilgrimage with: • Perpetual adoration of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament

- Devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary
- Frequent celebration of the Sacraments, particularly the Eucharist and Reconciliation
- Integrated formation of the person (spiritual, moral, intellectual and emotional)

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

"Sine dominico non possumus - We cannot live without Sunday"

Dear Friends,

Do you ever think or ponder about the Mass? How do you approach it? Is the Eucharistic sacrifice the "sum and summary" of your life, your culture, your faith? And is your life, as St. Irenaeus says, attuned to the Eucharist and does it confirm your way of thinking." (St. Irenaeus, Adv. haeres. 4,18,5:PG 7/I,1028)

I know that these are far-reaching and out into the heavens kinds of questions, but I am not sorry to raise them. We have the Treasure of treasures, the only thing that is worth living or dying for, that which civilizations are built upon, do we know this?!

The Eucharist is the source of our Christian life, and the Church draws her life from the Eucharist. The Eucharist is the summit of the Christian life. It unites heaven and earth. The Celebration of the Eucharistic Sacrifice, that is, the Mass, transcends time and space. It is where the Divine embraces and permeates all of creation. As St. John Paul II says it, "the Eucharist . . . is the most precious possession which the Church can have in her journey through history." (Cf., Catechism no. 1324 and Ecclesia de Eucharistia)

With youthful zeal and characteristic boldness, Bl. Pier Giorgio Frassati says, "with all the strength of my soul I urge you young people to approach the Communion table as often as you can. Feed on this bread of the angels whence you will draw all the energy you need to fight interior struggles. Because true happiness, dear friends, does not consist in the pleasures of the world or in earthly things, but in peace of conscience, which we only have if we are pure in heart and mind."

St. Padre Pio of Pietrelcina can hardly be said to exaggerate when he says, "if we only knew how God regards this Sacrifice, we would risk our lives to be present at a single Mass." To be sure, there are men and women martyrs, young and old, throughout the centuries that have [risked their lives].

The well-known martyrs of Abitinae, a group of 49 Christians found guilty of attending Mass, in 304, were asked why on earth they had disobeyed the Emperor's severe orders forbidding them to gather to celebrate the Eucharist. One of them replied: Sine dominico non possumus, that is, we cannot live without joining together on Sunday to celebrate the Eucharist. We would lack the strength to face our daily problems and not to succumb.

Indeed, there are challenges in this world that we too must face. We all know this. It is not, however, a Roman pro-consular that is prohibiting us from keeping the Lord's day Holy, it is our own freedom. From a spiritual point of view, we find our wills bending or broken by a constant invitation to consumption that is self-centered, a message of relativism leaving us indifferent, artificiality of the virtual world that puts a barrier between all things real, and a secular culture that eliminates transcendence.

We need this Bread, as much now as ever, to face the fatigue and weariness of our journey. Sunday, the Lord's Day, is the opportunity to regroup, to refocus, and to ultimately draw strength from him, the Lord of life.

As Pope Emeritus, Benedict XVI once said (29 May 2005): "The Sunday precept is not, therefore, an externally imposed duty, a burden on our shoulders. On the contrary, taking part in the Celebration, being nourished by the Eucharistic Bread and experiencing the communion of their brothers and sisters in Christ is a need for Christians, it is a joy; Christians can thus replenish the energy they need to continue on the journey we must make every week."

He who feeds on my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me, and I in him (Jn 6: 56). How is it possible not to rejoice in such a promise?

During the following weeks, I will try to dwell at greater length on this August Mystery that is the Mass and the Lord's Day, Sunday.

The cycle of reflections we are beginning today, with the intention of continuing it as long as we need, also has the purpose, among other things, of accompanying from a distance, so to speak, our preparation, participation, and appreciation towards the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. May our Eucharistic Lord accompany us along the way.

Mary, Our Lady of Peace, pray for us,

Fr. Brian
