*Love is patient, love is kind.
 It is not jealous, it is not pompous,
 It is not inflated, it is not rude,
 it does not seek its own interests,
 it is not quick-tempered,
 it does not brood over injury,
 it does not rejoice over wrongdoing
 but rejoices with the truth.
 It bears all things, believes all things,
 hopes all things, endures all things.*

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

"The Land Without a Sunday"

Dear Friends,

If we understand the sacredness and the magnificence of the Holy Mass, wouldn't it make sense for us to approach the day especially set aside for this, Sunday, with the same understanding?

This, my friends, is a matter that is serious, urgent, and as worthy of your attention as anything else in your lives (health, finances, education, etc.); and the good news is that the solutions are really fairly simple, if we apply a little common sense. If you understand how simple and common sense these solutions are, you might even be able to say they are easy; however, bearing in mind anytime that we go against the current of common practice, or against our own bad habits, there will be resistance.

At this point, you may be asking yourselves, 'what is he getting at?' or 'what is even talking about?' Here is the point, Sunday, the Day of the Lord is and should be a day unlike any other in our week. The week begins and ends here. It is the culminating point for the days that have passed and the source of refreshment for the days to come, truly and really, objectively speaking.

Today, I want to focus on not keeping this day holy.

There was an organized effort to abolish Sundays in the Soviet Union, Communist Russia, during the years of 1929 – 1940. During this eleven-year period, the Soviet Union had no weekends. They underwent an experiment of a 'continuous week' that shifted work schedules on a national scale so that work would never cease, and it failed. It was called the nepryevka or "continuous working week."

Why would this experiment be implemented? Well, in the eyes of the Soviet government led by Joseph Stalin's Marxist philosophy, Sundays represented a major threat to the successful advancement of material production and industrial progress. In other words, if nobody is working on Sundays nothing gets done. Why? Because the only thing that matters is the material; working on relationships with God and family are simply a waste of time.

From the communist perspective, what was happening was that for one full day the machines sat idle, nothing was being produced, no money made, because people retreated to forms of rest that were contrary to the revolutionary ideal, such as family life or religious practice. A Baron who spent time in Russia during this period related his experience: "The impression throughout the country was one of incessant work, work, work. The atmosphere was one of constant rush and drive; finally, we confessed to each other that what we were missing most was not a well-cooked meal, or a hot bath, but a quiet, peaceful Sunday with church bells ringing and people resting after prayer." This Baron's account is taken from a wonderful little essay by Maria Von Trapp (yes, the lady from the Sound of Music), where she nicely suggests that Communist Russia was not the only "Land without a Sunday," but the hustle and bustle of secular America is effectively lived in the same way. The alarming difference between these two lands is that in one prohibition of the Sabbath rest was imposed from without, whereas in America people are free to do as they like, the obstacle is somehow in the individuals themselves.

In his Apostolic Letter, "The Lord's Day," St. John Paul II says that Sunday is a day of Joy, a day of Rest, and a day of Solidarity. These three things really get to the heart of our Sunday observance and why it is good for human beings, because these things truly rejuvenate us and truly bring us closer to God and to one another.

For many, many years, throughout time and cultures, divine worship has been the driving force for humans to cease their labors. Only worship has outdone work. It was not so long ago that we really thought, laws even reflected this, that everyone deserved a day of rest together, and Sunday was a day when most people could gather to worship God and be with their families.

We live a land that is free. Let us not use this freedom to enslave ourselves to work and to things, but rather to praise, reverence, and serve God through Holy Mass and spending time with family.

Mary, Our Lady of Peace, pray for us,

Fr. Brian

ANNUAL DIOCESAN APPEALAnnual Diocesan Appeal 2019

Our invitation from Bishop McGrath and Bishop Cantú to participate in the 2019 Annual Diocesan Appeal will soon arrive at our homes. Please keep in mind as you receive your personal invitation that this Appeal not only assists our parish in fulfilling their assessment obligation, but at the same time supports the common services and programs that assist all 53 parishes in the Diocese of San Jose.

"Hand In Hand In Ministry" is the theme for our 2019 Annual Diocesan Appeal. This reminds us that, as Catholics, each of us has received the invitation to join as members of one community of faith for the works of justice, mercy, outreach and formation in our Parishes, our Diocese and the global Church.

A gift/pledge to the Annual Diocesan Appeal will help the work of our local Church to grow and to flourish throughout our Santa Clara County diocesan faith community.

Also, when our parish reaches its goal of $319,521 in cash, 100% of the additional funds received will be returned to us for use in our parish. Please prayerfully consider pledging your support.

Pledge cards are available in the pews, in the parish office, and in the literature holders in the old hall. Please return your completed pledge cards and/or donation by placing them in the collection baskets, mailing them to Our Lady of Peace Church & Shrine, or turning them into the parish office.

May God reward you for your generosity!

ADA 2019

ANNUAL DIOCESAN APPEAL

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Each year at this time, the parishes of the Diocese of San Jose join together in supporting the Annual Diocesan Appeal. The generosity of our parishioners makes it possible for us, through collaboration with the priests, religious and lay ministers of our Diocese, to broaden and deepen our ministry of service as members of Christ and His Church.

The Diocese of San Jose is remarkably diverse, comprised of people from many cultural and ethnic backgrounds. Each of our parish communities is unique in its welcome of appreciation of our rich diversity.

"Hand In Hand In Ministry" is the theme for our 2019 Annual Diocesan Appeal. This reminds us that, as Catholics, each of us has received the invitation to join as members of one community of faith for the works of justice, mercy, outreach and formation in our Parishes, our Diocese and the global Church.

When we come together – Hand In Hand In Ministry – we realize that we have been blessed with many gifts, and we find strength and beauty in our diversity. We celebrate our faith joyfully and ask that you consider making a gift that will help to continue these important ministries.

Your gift to the Annual Appeal provides support for key programs in and for our parishes – programs such as Faith Formation for Children and Adults, Youth and Young Adult Ministry, Marriage Preparation, Hispanic Apostolate, Liturgical and Music Minister Formation, and Tuition Assistance for our Catholic Schools. The ADA also funds the formation and ongoing education for priests, deacons and seminarians.

Thank you in advance for your prayerful consideration of this year's Appeal. We pledge to remember you, your families and loved ones in our daily prayers.

With every best wish and kind regard, we remain,

Sincerely yours,

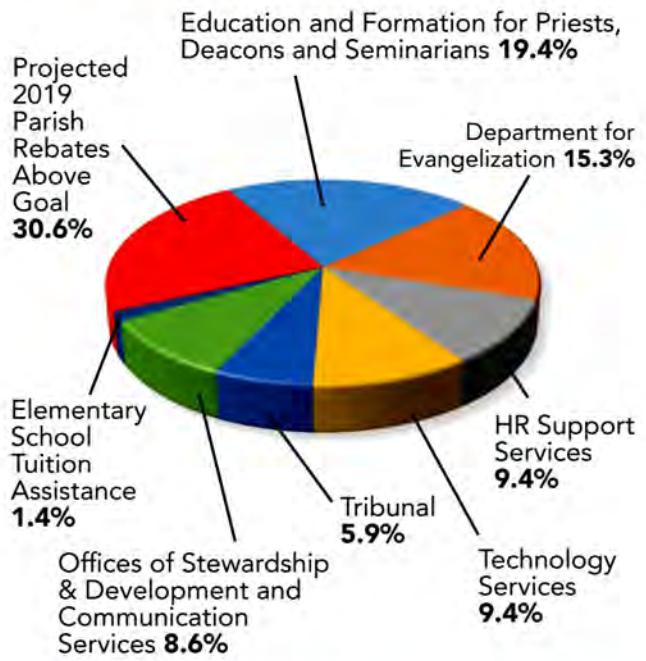

Patrick J. McGrath
Bishop of San Jose

Oscar Cantú
Coadjutor Bishop of San Jose
