Good Shepherd Sunday

“Jesus said: “Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever does not enter a sheepfold through the gate but climbs over elsewhere is a thief and a robber. But whoever enters through the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens it for him, and the sheep hear his voice, as the shepherd calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has driven out all his own, he walks ahead of them, and the sheep follow him, because they recognize his voice. But they will not follow a stranger; they will run away from him, because they do not recognize the voice of strangers.”“ - John 10:1-5

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Friends,

They devoted themselves to the teaching of the apostles and to fellowship, to the breaking of the bread and to the prayers. (Acts 2,42)

In the event that you have forgotten from last week, we are considering what it means to live a normal life – not only in Christian terms, but if Christ is the new Adam, also in human terms. (Cf., Gaudium et Spes, 22) The first aspect that we looked at was the need to devote ourselves to the teaching of the apostles.

The second aspect of Christian living is fellowship. It is important to note that fellowship here means more than enjoying a doughnut together after mass. The Greek word that is actually used here is: κοινωνία (koinonia). This Greek term is literally translated as: a partnership or a communion of people – with God and with one another. There is also a little more bite in the term fellowship if we appeal to the latin translation, communio, which literally means to barricade or strengthen.

The sacred gathering of the faithful, known as fellowship, might be better termed a “communion.” This idea of fellowship is something very important for our day and age. Think about it for a moment. Could it be the case that we unknowingly keep “bad company” and their influence has seeped into the most intimate aspects of our lives? Take for example the television. At one point in time, the family would gather around the fireplace or the hearth and share with one another. They would sing and make music together for entertainment, share stories and spend time with one another. Now, the television (or access through the internet) has, in many homes, become the tie that binds. Why is this an important point concerning fellowship? Well, I would say, through the portal of the television and internet we are now influenced by, subject to, and even worst in “communio” with, many people and themes that are diametrically opposed to our faith, to our dignity, to our humanity and ultimately to our happiness. I know what you are thinking, “Father you are super old-fashioned!” Maybe I am, but I can’t help but think about what St. Thomas says about friendship: Since a man’s friend is another self, so to speak, the friend’s actions will be his own in a sense. (Comm. On Nich. Ethics, 1896)

The question I would like you to ask is, who am I spending my time with? Who are my friends? Where do I seek fellowship, koinonia, communio? Is it with someone who holds me accountable and encourages me and helps me when I am struggling with sin? Do I have rich relationships with others who help me grow in my faith? If not, why not? Is it my fault or am I keeping the wrong company (either really or virtually)?

True fellowship is something more than a simple acquaintance at church that I know likes glazed doughnuts and coffee with cream and no sugar. True fellowship is to help one another to persevere in the faith and ultimately help one another get to heaven. Therefore, I want to refer back to the program of the Apostles: “They devoted themselves to the teaching of the apostles and to fellowship, to the breaking of the bread and to the prayers.” (Acts 2,42) They were not strangers to one another, but they were a communio of people. And it is precisely this type of fellowship that we must build with one another. This also means that we must seek to avoid all division, all gossip, all greed, resentment and selfishness that compromises this unity. This also means that we must continually ask examine ourselves, especially in consuming entertainment and mass media, who influences my life or who do I spend my time with. Do I know more about the life of some celebrity, who lives miles away and shares nothing with me in terms of values and life orientation, than I do about my fellow parishioner who I sit next to or behind every Sunday in Church?

Just some things to think about to help us be Normal Christians, i.e., dedicating ourselves to the practice of the faith in such a way that we may enjoy the newness of life that Christ so badly desires to give to us. It is not automatic. Faith is given to us as a seed and we need to water it, give it sunlight and make sure that it is growing – growing amidst plants and not thorns that will grow up and choke the plant.

A simple summary: keep good company and help one another get to heaven! This is the job of each and every one of us.

Mary, Our Lady of Peace, pray for us,

Fr. Brian Dinkel, IVE

See page 4 for the schedule of events.

Are You a Registered Parishioner?

If you attend Mass here regularly, we encourage you to register as a member of Our Lady of Peace Catholic Church.

3 main reasons why registering is important:

1. If we as a parish do not know who is out there, how can we serve the needs of all?

This includes single people or young families who may not see the need to register.

2. Registering in the parish makes Sacrament prep easier when the time comes.

Infant baptisms, religious education registration, being a godparent/sponsor for baptisms or confirmations, and especially getting married whether you are getting married at this parish, another parish, or having an international Catholic wedding.

If you're not a registered parishioner this will greatly delay the process.

3. Letters of Recommendation

Sometimes there are occasions where letters of recommendations are needed from your parish pastor (ie Catholic school enrollment, scholarships, godparent eligibility, etc.). If you're not registered, we cannot provide this letter to you or your family.

Anyone, regardless of where they live and even though the Diocese is divided into parish geographical areas, is welcome to register at OLOP. Please note: there is a three (3) month waiting period from the date of registration before being considered a full-fledged registered parishioner. Any requests for pastor signatures on any forms, letters, or wedding preparation paperwork will not be processed within the 3 months.

Registering is easy!

Visit the Parish Office, call the Rectory Office (408-988-4585) or email us (info@olop-shrine.org) to request a registration form.

Why was Jesus rejected by the religious leaders of his day? Who was responsible for his death? Did he establish a Church to carry on his work? How did Jesus view his suffering and death? How should we? And, most importantly, did Jesus really rise from the dead and what does his resurrection mean? The story of Jesus raises these and other crucial questions.

Pope Emeritus Benedict brings to his study the vast learning of a brilliant scholar, the passionate searching of a great mind, and the deep compassion of a pastor's heart. In the end, he dares readers to grapple with the meaning of Jesus' life, teaching, death, and resurrection. Jesus of Nazareth: Holy Week: From the Entrance into Jerusalem to the Resurrection challenges both believers and unbelievers to decide who Jesus of Nazareth is and what he means for them.

We also carry a variety of gift bags, invitations, thank you notes and party goods – Supplies are limited so don't wait until the last minute!
