From the Pastor's Desk

"Living In The Present Moment"

Dear Friends,

If you are reading this installment of "From the Pastor's Desk," it is either because you are accessing it online or you visited our modest information/outreach table that we have at the main entrance of the Church. Regardless of where you stumbled upon that which you are currently reading, I thank you for stopping by.

Obviously these past days and weeks have been a whirlwind. Words like pandemic and national crises can be a little unnerving, to say the least. Even the more benign phrase deeming this as "the new normal" is a little dissatisfactory. Whatever title one may like to use to describe the current state of affairs, might I propose something alarmingly simple? How about, this is the present moment. I guess what I want to say is that this is our present. This is the time in which we are living and these are the circumstances that surround us, today, and this is a fact. Yesterday, and yesteryears had their own particular circumstances and today, right now, we have these.

The simple point that I would like to offer is that we have a mission to fulfill today, i.e., to praise, reverence and serve God, today, here and now. As St. John Henry Newman puts it so strikingly, "He has committed some work to me which He has not committed to another. I have my mission—I never may know it in this life, but I shall be told it in the next. . . Somehow I am necessary for His purposes . . . Therefore, I will trust Him. Whatever, wherever I am, . . . He does nothing in vain; He may prolong my life; He may shorten it; He knows what He is about. He may take away my friends, He may throw me among strangers, He may make me feel desolate, make my spirits sink, hide the future from me—still He knows what He is about . . . Let me be Thy blind instrument. I ask not to see—I ask not to know—I ask simply to be used."

Are these calamitous apocalyptic times, maybe yes, maybe no. Is the situation going to get worse or better? Perhaps either one or a little bit of both. Please know, I am in no way trying to trivialize or downplay the gravity and seriousness of our current situation—facing a pandemic, coming to grips with financial turmoil, our lives of public practice of the faith being interrupted. However, I would like to invite you to remember the fact that, whether the horizon looks bright and sunny or ominous and gloomy, our marching orders remain the same. We are called to praise, reverence and serve God. And this can and needs to be done, rain or shine. Moreover, we may rest assured that when we have our sights set on such a lofty and estimable goal, on a daily basis, becomes the source of true freedom. Or as Fulton Sheen puts it, "This is the most glorious of all liberties — the power to give our soul to God."

You may accuse me of simply looking for the silver lining in all of this, of being overly optimistic, or trying to "make lemonade out of lemons". Not really. As long as Jesus is God and God became man, there is real reason for hope. For, if the present, "even if it is arduous, can be lived and accepted if it leads towards a goal, if we can be sure of this goal, and if this goal is great enough to justify the effort of the journey." (Spe Salvi, n. 1) A Christian should be the most flexible of individuals adapting oneself to all situations; yet so completely immersed in the love of God. I think that such a hope and love is possible, do not underestimate yourself and most especially don't underestimate the power of God's grace.

In the end, the disposition of being so detached from the things of this world and indifferent to the different circumstances that God's providence will offer to us, is the goal of Lent. It is a means to an end. Lent seeks to bring us back to what is most important, the Good News of the Gospel, while detaching us from the things of this world. I would leave you with a prayer given to us by St. Faustina Kowalska, which is a prayer for the present:

Oh My God, When I look into the future, I am frightened, But why plunge into the future?
Only the present moment is precious to me. As the future may never enter my soul at all.

It is no longer in my power to change, correct or add to the past; For neither sages nor prophets could do that. And so what the past has embraced I must entrust to God.

O present moment, you belong to me, whole and entire. I desire to use you as best I can. And although I am weak and small, You grant me the grace of Your omnipotence.

And so, trusting in Your mercy, I walk through life like a little child, Offering You each day this heart Burning with love for Your Greater Glory.

Mary, Our Lady of Peace, pray for us,
Fr. Brian

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus,
I believe that You
are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment
receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

What is a Spiritual Communion?
St. Thomas Aquinas once defined Spiritual Communion as "an ardent desire to receive Jesus in the Most Holy Sacrament and in lovingly embracing Him as if we had actually received Him." You just need to approach Him with sincerity, humility and a desire to follow in His footsteps in acts of faith and charity. St. Jean-Marie Vianney, a French priest famous for converting countless souls to Christ in his parish of Ars in the 19th century, once said "when we feel the love of God growing cold, let us instantly make a Spiritual Communion. When we cannot go to the church, let us turn towards the tabernacle; no wall can shut us out from the good God."

FAMILY PRAYER SPACE AT HOME

In the coming weeks, families will be spending more time together at home. One good use of this time would be to pray together on a regular basis. This prayer time together can be enhanced by creating a place in your home dedicated to prayer.

Making a place for prayer in our home can help us do what the Gospel tells us, to go into an "inner room" to pray (Matthew 6:6). Make your prayer place as quiet, uncluttered, and "desert-like" as possible. It can be the corner of a room or any unused space. Furnish your prayer place with a Bible, prayer books, cross, rosary, icons, and a candle. Encourage family members to use the prayer place for personal as well as family prayer.

You can bless your place of prayer, saying:
Come, Holy God. Dwell in this place of prayer,
and bless it with your peace and presence.
Bless all who seek you here.
In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

One idea for prayer together is to find a resource with the prayers and reading for Sunday Mass and pray those together.

You can find the find the readings online at www.usccb.org.

PRAYER FROM POPE FRANCIS

Here is a CNS translation of the prayer Pope Francis recited by video March 11 asking Mary to protect Italy and the world during the coronavirus pandemic.

O Mary,
you always shine on our path
as a sign of salvation and of hope.
We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm.
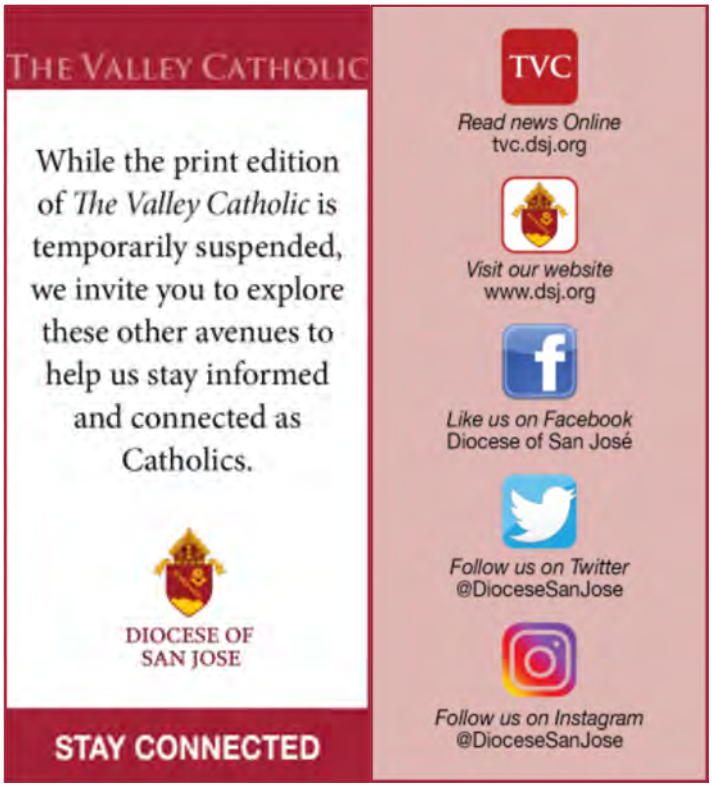
You, Salvation of the Roman People,
know what we need,
and we are sure you will provide
so that, as in Cana of Galilee,
we may return to joy and to feasting
after this time of trial.
Help us, Mother of Divine Love,
to conform to the will of the Father
and to do as we are told by Jesus,
who has taken upon himself our sufferings
and carried our sorrows
to lead us, through the cross,
to the joy of the resurrection. Amen.

Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin.

DIOCESAN NEWS



PRAYER FROM USCCB

With the worldwide outbreak of the coronavirus, we are confronted once more with the fragility of our lives, and again we are reminded of our common humanity — that the peoples of this world are our brothers and sisters, that we are all one family under God.

God does not abandon us, he goes with us even now in this time of trial and testing. In this moment, it is important for us to anchor our hearts in the hope that we have in Jesus Christ. Now is the time to intensify our prayers and sacrifices for the love of God and the love of our neighbor. Let us draw closer to one another in our love for him, and rediscover the things that truly matter in our lives.

United with our Holy Father Pope Francis, let us pray in solidarity for our brothers and sisters here and around the world who are sick. Let us pray for those who have lost loved ones to this virus. May God console them and grant them peace.

We pray also for doctors, nurses, and caregivers, for public health officials and all civic leaders. May God grant them courage and prudence as they seek to respond to this emergency with compassion and in service to the common good.

Holy Virgin of Guadalupe,
Queen of the Angels and Mother of the Americas.
We fly to you today as your beloved children.
We ask you to intercede for us with your Son,
as you did at the wedding in Cana.

Pray for us, loving Mother,
and gain for our nation and world,
and for all our families and loved ones,
the protection of your holy angels,
that we may be spared the worst of this illness.

For those already afflicted, we ask you to obtain the grace of healing and deliverance.
Hear the cries of those who are vulnerable and fearful, wipe away their tears and help them to trust.

In this time of trial and testing, teach all of us in the Church to love one another and to be patient and kind. Help us to bring the peace of Jesus to our land and to our hearts.

We come to you with confidence, knowing that you truly are our compassionate mother, health of the sick and cause of our joy.

Shelter us under the mantle of your protection, keep us in the embrace of your arms, help us always to know the love of your Son, Jesus. Amen.

Make a difference with a sustaining gift to the ADA!

Sustaining giving is a new convenient way for you to support the Annual Diocesan Appeal (ADA) for the Diocese of San Jose. No more writing checks, pay for postage, or making a trip to the post office! Your gift will renew each year automatically, so you won't have to worry about logging in and creating a new gift each year.

Sustaining giving benefits the diocese by reducing the costs associated with mailings, postage, processing, and administrative fees. These funds can instead be directed to our ministries, allowing them to help more people in Faith Formation, our seminarians, and the children in our Catholic schools. They all count on us for our support.

How does sustaining giving work?
When you select 'sustaining gift' online at www.dsj.org/ada or on your pledge card, you are committing to making a gift every month through your checking account or debit or credit card. More importantly, you are making a difference every months! You can adjust the amount of your recurring gift as well as cancel it at any time.
Join our sustaining giving program today to help our friends and neighbors in need. Our ministries thank you!
