From the Pastor's Desk

An Easter Thanksgiving

Dear Friends,

Today I simply want to give thanks. As the structure of the Preface for the Mass usually says, "it is right and just, our duty and our salvation, always and everywhere to give You thanks," I would like to recognize our duty to do just that today. God has blessed us immensely these past weeks and it is important for us to acknowledge that and give thanks to Him.

All good things come from Him. It is all a gift from Him. Any good that anyone of us can do, in the end is a gift. Over the past two weeks, Holy Week and the Octave of Easter, we have been especially blessed. And I want to thank all of you for your prayers and participation in the grace that God has desired to share with us this year. The words penned by St. Paul, "where sin abounds, grace abounds all the more" (Rom 5:20) do not cease to be true. People, in so many different levels have felt the weight of suffering these past months and the high point of our liturgical year helps us remember the essential qualities of a parish. As Canon Law puts it, "A parish is a certain community of the Christian faithful stably constituted in a particular church" where pastoral care takes place. (Can. 515 §1) And what is that pastoral care that the church speaks of? Canon number 528 explains:

§1. A pastor is obliged to make provision so that the word of God is proclaimed in its entirety to those living in the parish; for this reason, he is to take care that the lay members of the Christian faithful are instructed in the truths of the faith, especially by giving a homily on Sundays and holy days of obligation and by offering catechetical instruction.

§2. The pastor is to see to it that the Most Holy Eucharist is the center of the parish assembly of the faithful. He is to work so that the Christian faithful are nourished through the devout celebration of the sacraments and, in a special way, that they frequently approach the sacraments of the Most Holy Eucharist and penance. He is also to endeavor that they are led to practice prayer even as families and take part consciously and actively in the sacred liturgy which, under the authority of the diocesan bishop, the pastor must direct in his own parish and is bound to watch over so that no abuses creep in.

I wanted to mention these things, because during the past two weeks we have been blessed with an abundance of prayer, an abundance of Liturgical Worship, and an abundance of Reconciliation. Indeed, as we celebrated this past Divine Mercy Sunday, God's Mercy has showered down upon us in abundance.

Through the Holy Triduum, the Octave of Easter, the Divine Mercy Novena, we have been able to gather together in order to reflecting upon the Word of God and celebrating the sacraments.

I also want to thank my brother priests for their generosity and sacrifice in making all of this so readily available to the faithful who in an equally generous manner desired to participate in them. To the Sisters, the Staff and the Volunteers, the exact same needs to be said for your tireless work and assistance in making this happen. And to all of you who participated in these different celebrations, whether it was sitting outside in the cold during the Easter Vigil, braving the sun in the Divine Mercy Sunday confessional line, or faithfully joining us via our livestream, I want to thank you. It seems to me that this is what parish life ought to be like everyone participating and at the service of God and one another. God always at the center. In this way, we can understand how St. Luke described the early Christians as a community of believers who were "of one heart and mind." (Cf., Acts 4:32)

As I just indicated, God is the beginning and end of all of this, the Initiator and the One who brings it all to fulfillment. So, it is with a great sense of humility and gratitude that we ask God for the grace to remain faithful to the many blessings that He has given us and will continue to give upon us. For, in the end, that is the grace of graces, perseverance in the faith. May our Blessed Mother, Our Lady of Peace, obtain this grace for each and every one of us.

Christ is risen! He is risen indeed!

Mary, Our Lady of Peace, pray for us,

Fr. Brian

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

PERPETUAL ADORATION

What is Adoration? Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament is one of the most profound types of prayer that we have as Catholics. Jesus wished to stay with us and the means He chose is the Blessed Sacrament. He is there, Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity in the Most Holy Eucharist. At any time of day or night, we can come to the Church and Jesus is there… waiting for us.

To sign up for an adoration time slot, please fill out the form below and turn it in to the parish office or drop if off in the collection baskets.

For more information about how to become a member of the Perpetual Adoration Ministry please visit our website at: www.olop-shrine.org/perpetual-adoration/

MASS INTENTION REQUESTS

The calendar is currently open for Mass intention requests for the months of April & May 2021! (Please continue to check for updates as we adapt to new changes). Please follow the temporary process listed below.

Although the parish office is closed to drop-in visitors, we have instituted a temporary process to accept and process Mass Intention requests via email. The normal Mass Intention guidelines listed below apply, including the 25 character limit.

Mass Intention request requirements:

- Donation of $10 per Mass
- Up to two (2) separate Masses that do not occur in the same week may be requested
- Each Mass may only have 2 names with a limit of 25 characters (including spaces) per Mass request, and only one intention option chosen (Birthday, Death Anniversary, Health, Special Intentions, Thanksgiving, or Wedding Anniversary). Please remember to note if the request is for someone living or deceased.
- No changes can be made once the requests have been placed into the calendar.
- No holds or reservations will be accepted. No exceptions can be made.

In order to request a Mass Intention during this shelter-in time, please carefully follow the steps below:

1. First, please send an email with your full name, phone number, Mass Intention request text (limit 25 characters), and preferred date/time to mass@olop-shrine.org. Please refer to the Mass Intention Requests form above to see what details you will need to provide.
2. Once the email is received, our staff will look through the calendar for availability. Until the intention request is finalized by a confirmation reply email from our staff, the intention is not considered entered in the calendar. Due to the volume of requests, it is best to request a Mass intention at least one week prior to the desired date.
3. If there is a time conflict with the requested date/time, our staff member will call you to arrange an alternative date and time. You will also receive a call if there are any changes needed to the request.
4. The confirmation email will give a link indicating how to submit your Mass Intention request donation online.

This information & a sample request form can also be found online at bit.ly/olop-mass-requests
