The Scrutinies – Let Us Remember Our Own Baptism

Dear Friends,

One of the graces that this time of the liturgical calendar awards us is the final stages of the sacramental preparation process for adults or the Catechumenate. Pope St. Paul VI restored the ancient rite of the Catechumenate for Adults, which comprise of different periods of formation and commitment by which a person draws closer to Christ and the Church in Baptism.

The Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy of the Second Vatican Council decreed, “The catechumenate for adults, comprising several distinct steps, is to be restored and brought into use at the discretion of the local ordinary. By this means the time of the catechumenate, which is intended as a period of suitable instruction, may be sanctified by sacred rites to be celebrated at successive intervals of time” (n. 64).

The Catechumenate has as its aim to help a person learn and live out the Christian faith. This is marked by sacred rites that are celebrated in succession in order to aid the individual in their journey towards the Christian life.

If you attended the 8am mass two weeks ago or the 10am mass last weekend, you witnessed the first and second scrutinies respectively. This Sunday’s 2pm Mass will witness the third and final scrutiny. What are the scrutinies? Well, they are parts of the Order of Christian Initiation for Adults.

Therefore, what actually happens is that on the third, fourth, and fifth Sundays of Lent, the newly named “Elect” participate in three successive rites called “the Scrutinies.” They have transitioned from being called “catechumens” to “elect” because they had their names inscribed in the book of the elect at the Cathedral of San Jose. This took place at the Rite of Election, when Bishop Oscar Cantú, the shepherd of this local Church received them.

The Rite of Christian Initiation book describes them as follows, “Scrutinies are rites for self-searching and repentance and have above all a spiritual purpose. The scrutinies are meant to uncover, then heal all that is weak, defective or sinful in the hearts of the elect [those preparing for the sacraments of baptism, confirmation and the Eucharist]; to bring out, then strengthen, all that is upright, strong and good. For the scrutinies are celebrated in order to deliver the elect from the power of sin and Satan, to protect them against temptation, and to give them strength in Christ, who is the way, the truth and the life. These rites, therefore, should complete the conversion of the elect and deepen their resolve to hold fast to Christ and to carry out their decision to love God above all” (No. 141).

As you have seen or will see in the brief but purposeful rite of the scrutiny, the “Elect” along with their sponsors, kneel before the celebrant and the assembly. Everyone is invited to pray in silence to the Holy Spirit asking “ask that the elect will be given a spirit of repentance, a sense of sin, and the true freedom of the children of God.” (Rubrics for the Scrutiny)

The culminating point of the scrutiny is the prayer of a minor exorcism, which includes a cleansing prayer, the laying-on-of-hands and a prayer of protection. Each Scrutiny is a step in preparing the Elect for the celebration and initiation soon to come.

“The Scrutinies are God’s way of taking a close, loving look at the Elect. God does not scrutinize the Catechumens in order to find what’s wrong with them but to celebrate all that’s beautiful, good, and true in them. Jesus “scrutinizes” us with Divine Light, revealing all that is valuable within each of us. He also reveals to us the ways in which we are hurting, or sick, or sinful. This is not to reject us, but to call us to new life and to healing.” (St. John Cantius Church, RCIA: The Scrutinies)

The scrutinies have roots that date back to the early Church and take place during the Sunday Mass. They are thematically linked to the Liturgical Cycle A readings and all of them are taken from St. John’s Gospel. The selection of readings (Samaritan Woman, Blind Man at the Pool of Siloam, the raising of Lazarus from the dead) dating back to 500 AD are powerful depictions of the hidden transformation God accomplishes in the Elect through each Scrutiny. Each proclamation emphasizes repentance and conversion as the Light of Christ comes to pierce the darkness of sin and to bring life where there is death. (Ibid.)

As the Catechism puts it: “Man is made to live in communion with God, in whom he finds happiness” (n. 45). God has created the human person to be in Communion with Himself. We will never find true joy outside of His will. The scrutinies and these final stages before Easter Vigil help remind us of this.

Please pray for the elect and those who are preparing to receive the sacraments of the Church.

Mary, Our Lady of Peace, pray for us,
Fr. Brian

Lord God, I thank you today for the gift of my life, and for the lives of all my brothers and sisters. I know there is nothing that destroys more life than abortion, yet I rejoice that You have conquered death by the Resurrection of Your Son. I am ready to do my part in ending abortion. Today I commit myself never to be silent, never to be passive, never to be forgetful of the unborn. I commit myself to be active in the pro-life movement, and never to stop defending life until all my brothers and sisters are protected, and our nation once again becomes a nation with liberty and justice not just for some, but for all, through Christ our Lord. Amen!
