FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Easter 2022 - Don't Be Happy; Be Super Happy!

Dear Friends,

Are you happy about Easter? Why are you happy about it?

This may seem like a strange title and series of questions for an Easter Sunday letter. Wouldn't "This is the day that the Lord has made, let us rejoice and be glad!" be more appropriate? Perhaps even just more simply, "Happy Easter!" would be more appropriate. Why bother us with questions? After all, it's Easter is it not?! Yes, it is Easter, but why should it matter to you?

I think everyone knows that it is a day to celebrate and that it is a day of joy and it matters that Christ rose from the dead. This might be a pretty typical response, but does the response get much beyond that? Something so great, something so incredible, something so impactful, and reality-changing, should mark us as deeply as possible. This penetration, however, cannot be done by natural means alone. In other words, if I were to try and hype you up about how great the Easter celebration should be, would still not be enough. It is a supernatural event. The happiness and joy of this day is not a merely natural one; it is supernatural.

You might ask, "well, what's the difference?"

Natural happiness can be characterized as when one feels loved or appreciated, which produces natural feelings of consolation. When we are successful at an endeavor or do something new and exciting, these usually produce feelings of natural happiness. So, dressing up nicely, going out to an event like Easter Sunday Mass, getting brunch with family and then taking the day easy sounds delightful and in fact it is. Actually, the Church wants you to do that every single Sunday, because in her mind every single Sunday is a celebration of the Resurrection!

Spiritual happiness on the other hand goes deeper. Ven. Fulton Sheen describes spiritual happiness as "the serenity of temperament in the midst of the changing situations of life, like that of a mountain when a storm sweeps it away. That is why a man who does not have his soul rooted in the Divine overstretches every problem. He cannot apply his full potential to anything because he is preoccupied with too many things." (A Way to Happiness, c. 4) More than a passing attitude, spiritual joy is a habit and state of being that is more permanent and puts difficult things in their proper perspective.

The happiness that we are offered on this day is based on the fact that there should be no greater reason for happiness than the Resurrection of Christ—His victory is our victory.

For this reason, our joy, if it is to be permanent, cannot be worldly. What Sheen says here about priests can be equally applied to all Christians, "Worldliness is always sad, because if we lose the ball of this world, we are miserable. The holier we are, the less sad we are. And if today there are sad priests, it is not because 'the world is full of problems'—whenever has it been without problems?—it is because the priest has lost the transparency of faith." (Those Mysterious Priests, c. 15) In the sense, the one who he has lost that ability to see God's providence in the events of this world and of his life in particular grows sad. This is why we say that our joy is supernatural.

Easter, i.e., the Paschal Mysteries of our Lord (The Passion, Death and Resurrection), lifts us above our ups-and-downs and misery to the supernatural plane. Fulton Sheen said: "If an act of contrition had to be translated into a facial expression, it would be a smile... If one does not know that one is wounded one can never rejoice to be healed." (Ibid.)

This brings us to the real heart of the matter: "it depends upon grace!"

Therefore, for those who have not been to confession for a long time or regularly, I invite you to "to rediscover [...] the beauty and joy of the sacrament of Penance" as an occasion to experience "the consoling joy of forgiveness." What greater joy can we think about than that of a clear conscience! Heaven itself rejoices over this event, "I tell you, in just the same way there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous people who have no need of repentance." (Lk 15,7)

Moreover, we can say that the Resurrection of Christ is not only a cause of joy for the Lord, but also for the redeemed, since it allows us to make our own the words of the psalm, "Then our mouth was filled with laughter and our lips with shouts of joy." (Ps 126,2)

Well, I know that we have covered a lot of ground here. I want to leave you with two practical take-aways: 1. Make confession a regular and frequent part of your life—it will bring you joy; 2. Celebrate every Sunday as if it were Easter Sunday—the Church looks at it in this way.

"It is Easter which returns week by week, celebrating Christ's victory over sin and death, [...] it is the day which

ANNUAL FINANCIAL REPORT (FISCAL YEAR 2020-21)

This annual report is a summary of a several page report submitted to the Diocese this year to show our actual income and expenses. For maximum transparency, the Diocese has electronic access to our books, we are audited by third-party accountants, and we are happy to show the full report to any parishioners who have questions (by appointment).

Our Pastoral Council and Finance Committees are advisory groups who help the Pastor discern what the parish needs and how to fund those needs. This has resulted in a growth in parish stewardship and reflected in the many services offered at Our Lady of Peace Church. If you are interested in having a list of member names for each group, please do contact the rectory office. On behalf of our pastor, Brian Dinkel, IVE, the Pastoral Council, and the Finance Committee, I thank you for your continued devotion and support. May God bless you for your generosity.

WATCHOCEAN OF MERCY

At the dawn of the twentieth century, three voices rose up from Poland to proclaim an urgent message, a message powerful enough to alter the course of an age plunging into spiritual darkness. This true story examines and chronicles the phenomenal lives and spiritual legacy of St. Faustina Kowalska, St. Maximilian Kolbe, and Pope St. John Paul II, modern day "Apostles of Mercy."

PARISH REGISTRATION

Are You a Registered Parishioner?

If you are over the age of 18 and attend Mass here regularly, we encourage you to register as a member of Our Lady of Peace parish.

Three main reasons why registering is important:

1. Make Sacrament prep easier when the time comes.

Infant baptisms, religious education registration, being a godparent/sponsor for baptisms or confirmations, and especially getting married (whether you are getting married at this parish, another parish, or having an international Catholic wedding) all involve record of parish participation. If you're not a registered parishioner, this will greatly delay the process.

2. Letters of Recommendation

Sometimes there are occasions where letters of recommendations are needed from your parish pastor (ie Catholic school enrollment, scholarships, godparent eligibility, etc.). If you're not registered, we cannot provide this letter to you or your family.

3. If we as a parish do not know who is out there, how can we serve the needs of all?

This includes single people or young families who may not see the need to register.

Anyone, regardless of where they live (even though the Diocese is divided into parish geographical areas), is welcome to register at OLOP.

Please note: there is a three (3) month waiting period from the date of registration before being considered a full-fledged registered parishioner. Any requests for pastor signatures on any forms, letters, or wedding preparation paperwork will not be processed within the 3 months.

Registering is easy! Visit the parish office, or call the office and leave a voicemail at 408-988-4585, or email info@olop-shrine.org to request a registration form.
