FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

What Are Your Summer Plans?

Dear Friends,

What are you going to do this summer?

We are already in the waning moments of May; it is definitely not too early to think about it—its worth it. We would do well to think about our leisure time. Many say it is a practice that has really been forgotten in this day and age. Perhaps later on in the summer I can circle back with some ideas about Leisure, which is a virtue worth considering on its own, especially in our noise-filled frenetic culture. First, a word about summer.

There is something youthful and familiar about summer. It is a great moment to go somewhere, to read something and to do something. So, I encourage you think about it.

Where are you going to go this summer? How about taking an excursion? Summer is a great moment to spend time outside. Here in California I am shocked by the natural beauty that is around us, but even more shocked by the number of people who have never gone out and experienced it. To look at El Capitan or General Sherman from a google image search doesn't count! Maybe you have not visited the California Missions in a while (or ever!). Obviously going camping is an adventure, especially for those who have never been. There is something very healthy about getting out under the stars and around the campfire. Stories are told here and memories made.

What are you going to read this summer? Have you thought about making a reading list? Summer is a great time to put together a reading list. It is most definitely a great opportunity to pick something up and dive into it. It could be a good time to try out some Chesterton, Tolkien, C.S. Lewis, Hilary Belloc, or even some Mark Twain. How about giving Flannery O'Connor a little bit of your time? If you have been intimidated by the size of Don Quixote, you might be pleasantly surprised by its humor. You could always pick up the life of a saint or a blessed. I am currently reading a great biography about Ven. Aloysius Schwartz by Kevin Wells titled, "Priest and Beggar." There are many holy lay men and women whose lives are worth reading about. You could also try your hat at reading some poetry. For the summer I would wholeheartedly recommend William Wordsworth. Another great idea could be to pick out a virtue or a practice that may strengthen your character. Or if you are like me, you may have many titles that pack the shelves and just need to scan through them to reduce the list to several.

What are you going to do this summer? How about planning a summer project? This could be anything from de-cluttering and simplifying your house and home. It could be building or helping someone to fix something up. What about committing to hand write a letter each week to a relative. Have a weekly rosary gathering/barbeque with friends. You might want to dust off a musical instrument or buy one for the first time and begin with some lessons. Maybe you have always wanted a raised garden bed in the backyard and never got around to doing it.

I could continue to come up with random ideas and suggestions, but I think you get the point. You have to make your own and come up with your own. Summer is a great time to do some of these things. It is a great opportunity to attend to ourselves, our families, our friends, and our homes.

Now, you may be asking yourselves (as I have asked myself this), "is there not more important things that you could be conveying to us in this bulletin?" Of course, there are always pressing matters. There are severe challenges that we all face and are living through. Indeed, we must continue to face them and live through them, nevertheless we must keep moving forward. We are a people of hope. We hope in God and we hope in humanity. Therefore, it is good for us to lead well-ordered lives so that we may be balanced, strong and free. If we think about the parable of the Sower and the Seed (Mt 13:1-23) – Christ's love will grow in the soil of Christian Culture. This is the culture, the work of work and music: tunes that are sung, art, literature, games, gatherings among family and friends. Summer is a great time for much of this. Enjoy!

Mary, Our Lady of Peace, pray for us,

Fr. Brian

PARISH REGISTRATION

Are You a Registered Parishioner?

If you are over the age of 18 and attend Mass here regularly, we encourage you to register as a member of Our Lady of Peace parish.

Three main reasons why registering is important:

1. Make Sacrament prep easier when the time comes.

Infant baptisms, religious education registration, being a godparent/sponsor for baptisms or confirmations, and especially getting married (whether you are getting married at this parish, another parish, or having an international Catholic wedding) all involve record of parish participation. If you're not a registered parishioner, this will greatly delay the process.

2. Letters of Recommendation

Sometimes there are occasions where letters of recommendations are needed from your parish pastor (ie Catholic school enrollment, scholarships, godparent eligibility, etc.). If you're not registered, we cannot provide this letter to you or your family.

3. If we as a parish do not know who is out there, how can we serve the needs of all?

This includes single people or young families who may not see the need to register.

Anyone, regardless of where they live (even though the Diocese is divided into parish geographical areas), is welcome to register at OLOP.

Please note: there is a three (3) month waiting period from the date of registration before being considered a full-fledged registered parishioner. Any requests for pastor signatures on any forms, letters, or wedding preparation paperwork will not be processed within the 3 months.

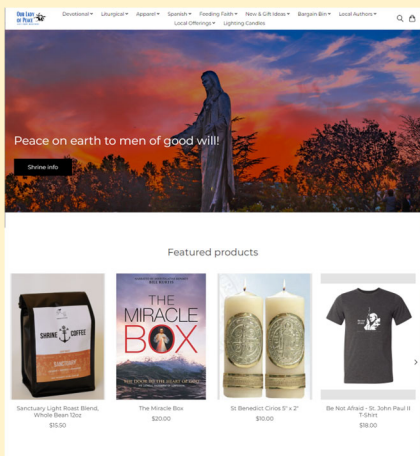

Registering is easy! Visit the parish office, or call the office and leave a voicemail at 408-988-4585, or email info@olop-shrine.org to request a registration form.
