Totus Tuus

Dear Friends,

On October 22nd we celebrate the memorial of St. John Paul II—a great Marian saint! Since it is my desire to touch upon some aspects of Marian Devotion during the 33-day preparatory period that our parish is making for the Total Consecration, I thought it would be nice to reflect on his papal motto – Totus Tuus.

In a letter to the Montfort Religious Family, St. John Paul II explains to us the meaning behind this motto. He says,

> As is well known, my episcopal coat of arms symbolically illustrates the Gospel text quoted above [When Jesus saw his mother, and the disciple whom he loved standing near, he said to his mother, "Woman, behold, your son!'. Then he said to the disciple, "Behold, your mother!'. And from that hour the disciple took her to his own home" (Jn 19: 25-27).]; the motto Totus tuus is inspired by the teaching of St Louis Marie Grignion de Montfort (cf. Gift and Mystery, pp. 42-43; Rosarium Virginis Mariae, n. 15). These two words express total belonging to Jesus through Mary: "Tuus totus ego sum, et omnia mea tua sunt", St Louis Marie wrote, and he translates his words: "I am all yours, and all that I have is yours, O most loving Jesus, through Mary, your most holy Mother" (Treatise on True Devotion, n. 233). This Saint's teaching has had a profound influence on the Marian devotion of many of the faithful and on my own life. (St. John Paul II, Letter to the Montfort Religious Family)

Then in a book, which is a memoir of sorts, Saint John Paul II goes into greater detail and theological depth about the phase. He writes,

> Totus Tuus. This phrase is not only an expression of piety, or simply an expression of devotion. It is more. During the Second World War, while I was employed as a factory worker, I came to be attracted to Marian devotion. At first, it had seemed to me that I should distance myself a bit from the Marian devotion of my childhood, in order to focus more on Christ. Thanks to Saint Louis of Montfort, I came to understand that true devotion to the Mother of God is actually Christocentric, indeed, it is very profoundly rooted in the Mystery of the Blessed Trinity, and the mysteries of the Incarnation and Redemption. (John Paul II in Crossing the Threshold of Hope, Arnoldo Mondadori Editori, 1994)

If we return to the letter that he wrote to the Monfort Religious Family, we can encounter a rich commentary on the Maxim, "Ad Iesum per Mariam – To Jesus through Mary", popularized by St. Louis de Montfort. What St. John Paul II does here, in this explanation, is reminds us of the Christocentric nature of Marian devotion. He says, "The love of God through union with Jesus Christ is the purpose of every genuine devotion, since Christ, as St Louis Marie wrote, "is our only Master who has to teach us; our only Lord on whom we ought to depend; our only Head to whom we must be united; our only Model to whom we should conform ourselves; our only Physician who can heal us; our only Shepherd who can feed us; our only Way who can lead us; our only Truth whom we must believe; our only Life who can animate us; and our only All in all things who can satisfy us" (Treatise on True Devotion, n. 61)."

It is precisely when we turn to Mary, we cannot help but recognize that we are turning to God. Why? Because, St. John Paul II explains, "[because] You never think of Mary without Mary interceding for you with God. You never praise or honour Mary without Mary's praising and honouring God with you. Mary is altogether relative to God; and indeed, I might well call her the relation to God. She only exists with reference to God. She is the echo of God that says nothing, repeats nothing, but God. If you say "Mary', she says "God'. St Elizabeth praised Mary and called her blessed because she had believed. Mary, the faithful echo of God, at once intoned: "Magnificat anima mea Dominum'; "My soul magnifies the Lord' (Lk 1: 46). What Mary did then, she does daily now. When we praise her, love her, honour her or give anything to her, it is God who is praised, God who is loved, God who is glorified, and it is to God that we give, through Mary and in Mary" (cf. Treatise on True Devotion, n. 225)."

Let us pray through the intercession of St. John Paul II that each one of us may become better sons and daughters of Mary. May we look to her with such confidence and regularity as did St. John Paul II, St. Louis de Montfort, and countless other Saints. She will bring us closer to her Son. May it be so.

Mary, Our Lady of Peace, pray for us,

Fr. Brian

CALIFORNIA CATHOLIC CONFERENCE

CATHOLICS UNITED TO PROTECT AND SUPPORT WOMEN CHILDREN AND FAMILIES

Scan to learn more #NoOnProp1

With Prop 1 (voting YES), abortions become legal at any stage of the pregnancy, including late-term abortions. So, for example, aborting at seven, eight, or nine months is legal. Abortion is added to Section 1.1 in the CALIFORNIA CONSTITUTION as an "Inalienable Right."

Without Prop 1 (voting NO), abortions would continue to be legal during the first six months of pregnancy and illegal after the fetus becomes viable (week 24 to week 26). So, for example, aborting at seven, eight, or nine months continues to be illegal. Abortion is not added to the CALIFORNIA CONSTITUTION as an "Inalienable Right".

Register to vote by October 24th and vote NO on PROP 1.
