Today We Celebrate the 4th Sunday of Easter

1st Reading: Acts 2:14A,36-41
 Psalm: 23:1-2A,3B-6
 2nd Reading: 1 Peter 2:20B-25
 Gospel: John 10:1-10

FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Easter is the exodus, the passage of human beings from slavery to sin and evil to the freedom of love and goodness. Because God is life, life alone, and we are his glory: the living man (cf. Irenaeus, Adversus Haereses, 4,20,5-7).

On this Fourth Sunday of Easter let us consider yet another effect of Christ's Resurrection. He has gained for us the liberty of the children of God. The Resurrection, together with the sending of the Holy Spirit, call us to freedom (cf. Gal 5:13), because for freedom Christ has set us free (Gal 5:1). Since our Lord is both our Creator and our Judge, it follows that in this world, freedom does not mean the right to do whatever we please, but rather it means the right to do whatever we ought. And ought implies order, purpose, values, God.

It is in this sense that freedom implies "building a communion and a participation... upon three inseparable aspects:

- the relation of man with the world, as lord;
- with people, as brother;
- and with God, as son." (DP 322)

Each one of us has been given freedom to attain the goal of our life, which is none other but union with God. However, nowadays, people "have extended in a great way the range of the abuses of freedom, and this leads to new forms of slavery, very dangerous ones, because they are disguised under the appearance of freedom. This is the paradox, the profound drama of our time: in the name of freedom, slavery is imposed." (Saint John Paul II, 1992)

St. Peter already warned against these abuses and exhorted the faithful to be truly free without using your freedom as a pretext for evil (1 Pt 2:16), and St. Paul admonished us not to use freedom as an excuse to serve the flesh. (Cf. Gal 5:13)

"It is in God in whom we attain true freedom." (Evangelii Gaudium, 170) Then, authentic freedom identifies with holiness, with the New Law, with the Christian faith and with charity. It is liberty of the children of God (Rom 8:21). Freedom has truth as its foundation as Our Lord showed when He said, the truth will set you free (Jn 8:32).

You will know whether you live in true freedom if you allow the Holy Spirit to lead you: The Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom (2 Cor 3:17). This is why the Holy Father wrote: "There is no greater freedom than that of allowing oneself to be guided by the Holy Spirit, renouncing the attempt to plan and control everything to the last detail, and instead letting Him enlighten, guide and direct us, leading us wherever He wills." (Evangelii Gaudium, 180)

St. Thomas Aquinas teaches, "Thus, he who avoids evil not because it is evil, but because it is God's command, is not free; but he who avoids evil because it is evil, that one is free. The Holy Spirit, who makes the soul perfect interiorly through the good habit, accomplishes this. The result is that the soul abstains from evil because of love, as if it were God's command. Therefore it is called free, not because it rejects divine law, but because it is inclined by good habits to do what is required by the divine law.

I cannot conclude without expressing my prayerful good wishes to all mothers. As Blessed Columba Marmion has written: "God is love, and so that we may have some idea of this love, He gives a share of it to mothers." I commend you very specially to Our Lady of Fatima whose pilgrimage in her honor we begin this 13th of May.

May God bless you!
 Fr. Gustavo Nieto, IVE

Will You Give Him the Gift of One Hour?

What could you gain by spending that hour in the presence of our Savior, Jesus, in silence. . Peace of mind? Tranquility? Graces? Answers to prayer?

For questions, call: Gloria Relloma (408) 262-8232 or Mother Ana de Jesus (408) 988-4160.

What is Eucharistic Adoration?

The Eucharist is the actual body, blood, soul, and divinity of Our Lord, Jesus Christ. By adoring the Eucharist we are reminded in a very tangible way of God's love for humanity and his promise to mankind,

168 HOURS in a week. It takes ~336 people to keep adoration going 24/7, and another 75 adorers as substitutes. That is a total of 411 people. Will you be among the few?

Perpetual adoration is forever, but one's life changes over time. Don't be afraid to commit to adoration, even if you might have to change your commitment in the future.

All adorers and future adorers!

You are all invited to a meeting on Sunday, May 18, 2014 at 11:00 AM with Mother Regina Pacis, Director of Perpetual Adoration Ministry.

June, the month dedicated to Perpetual Adoration is fast approaching! We have a lot of information to share with you in dedicating this month to Jesus, truly present in the Blessed Sacrament. We will meet in Room #1102 in the Family Learning Center.

Bring a friend, bring an adorer to our meeting and share the love and mercy of Jesus in the Holy Eucharist. Please call to confirm that you are coming.

Gloria Relloma 408-757-9801
Mother Regina Pacis 408-988-4160

Remember, you are all extremely important in the success of our ministry. Thank you and see you all on Sunday, May 18, 2014.

+JMJ,
Perpetual Adoration Ministry

GOOD SHEPHERD SUNDAY: WORLD DAY PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

"Every vocation to the priesthood comes from the heart of God, but it passes through the heart of a mother."

— Pope St. Pius X

Who did institute Good Shepherd Sunday as World Day Prayer for Vocations?

Pope Paul VI in 1963

What is the purpose of this day?

The purpose of this day is to publically fulfill the Lord's instruction to, "Pray the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into his harvest" (Mt 9:38; Lk 10:2).

Did you know?

New study shows over 500,000 of our youth and young adults have seriously considered a vocation.

On this World Day of Prayer for Vocations, let's fervently pray not just that young people to hear the Lord's voice, but that their parents happily support & encourage them as they respond to His call.

You can find many resources to promote a culture of vocations on:

Live Christ Share Christ

LCSC movement is a response to the call of the Holy Father Pope Francis to the new evangelization. It is intended for Catholics to meet Christ, live Christ and share Christ. It is designed to encourage parishioners to be a part of and be involved in the work of their parish.

LCSC has one basic purpose: bringing participants to a personal relationship with Jesus and living a spirit-filled Christian life. Come and explore. There is nothing to lose but a lot to gain.

Should you have any questions, please call LCSC Coordinators Boni Capuyan, @ 408/718-8785 or 408/988-4955 or Linda Respicio @ 408/838-7885.

News You Can Use

"Mary and the Carmelite Mystics"

In the extensive writing about the Carmelite mystics there is, I think one major lacuna. Not nearly enough attention has been given to the place of Mary in the mystical journey. On its coming to Europe in the mid-13th century, the Carmelite Order developed over a period of about 300 years several images of the Virgin. Firstly, she was Patron. The hermits chose her on Mount Carmel as their Patron by the medieval symbolism of dedicating their first church to her. Henceforth they would serve her as a feudal Lady, and she would protect them as her vassals. The second image developed was Mother. The Lady of the Order was also its Mother. Thirdly, the idea of Sister developed. The Brothers of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, to use the ancient title of the Order, realized that their Patron and Mother was also Sister. Finally, the Carmelites focused on Mary as Virgin, but not so much in terms of chastity or physical integrity, but as the Virgin of the Most Pure Heart. Mary was the ideal fulfillment of the programmatic aim of The Institute of the First Monks, "to offer to God a heart holy and pure from all actual stain of sin."

But behind all these four images of Mary – Patron, Mother, Sister and Virgin of the Most Pure Heart – there is a deeper reality: Mary is the gentle, loving presence for Carmelites. But she is more: she is the Teacher and Guide of the mystics. This is an area seldom averted to by authors on the Carmelite mystics, be they from the Order or not.
